XXVI B R A N D

NATIONAL JURIED SLIDE COMPETITION OF WORKS OF CERAMICS

December 6, 1997 – January 3, 1998

Brand Library and Art Center

Glendale, California

The Associates of Brand Library and Art Center and the Library Division of the City of Glendale are proud to present Brand xxvii: Works of Ceramics, a national competitive juried exhibition.

We are grateful for the generous support from patrons and friends, and the efforts of staff and volunteers. We wish to thank Jane Friend and members of her committee for their continued contribution of time and energy in creating another outstanding annual Brand exhibition.

The Associates of Brand Library and Art Center is a support group whose purpose is to aid and promote the facility and to foster art education in the community. In addition to contributing financially to the Brand, the Associates offer volunteer service and enjoy special benefits of the dance programs, concerts, demonstrations, lectures, exhibits and tours.

Philip Cornelius was born in San Bernardino, CA in 1934. He received a B.A. from San Jose State in 1960, and an M.F.A. from Claremont Graduate School in 1965. He has lectured and taught workshops nation-wide as well as teaching at San Jose State University, Pasadena City College, and Scripps College. An award-winning ceramicist, Cornelius also has exhibited internationally. His work was prominently featured in "Function and Narrative: Fifty Years of Southern California Ceramics" this fall at the Long Beach Museum of Art.

JUROR'S STATEMENT

Almost five hundred pieces were submitted for exhibition in Brand xxvii. My task was to dismiss nine out of ten pieces which were submitted. It was a very difficult job to do.

All of the pieces rejected had something of value which I was able to appreciate. I could have spoken to the attributes of each of those pieces. I think the work which I accepted was of a broad nature although some of my prejudices may show through. I knew many of the people who submitted and was pleased at the progress that they have made.

Congratulations to the people who got into Brand xxvii and for those who did not, keep working and do not let anyone stop you.

JUROR: PHILIP CORNELIUS

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

To this year's participating artists, for the excellent quality of work entered. The juror was challenged by a wide variety of choices.

To all the Patrons of Brand, whose contributions go towards prizes and awards.

To the Brand Library Manager, Joseph Fuchs, for his direction and assistance.

To Jill Conner, Gallery Director, for her diligent attention to the exhibit.

To Luke Hannington, for his tireless work with the computer.

To Thomas Eiden, for his expert design and layout of the catalog.

To the Library staff, and especially Dick Bellanger, who contributed to the smooth operation of this undertaking.

To the Brand Docents, who assisted with the jurying process and delivery of accepted works.

Last but not least, to Philip Cornelius, who as the juror for Brand xxvii has given us the benefit of his expertise and professional judgement in selecting this show from almost 500 entries.

The Executive Board of the Associates of Brand Library and Art Center thank all those who have helped make Brand xxvii a success.
