Dear Mr. Dellums:

I am in receipt of the copy of your letter to Democratic and Republican leaders of the Legislature regarding the Fair Employment Practices Commission and the funding for its operation and for additional staff.

I agree with the observations put forth in your letter that the FEPC is underfunded and understaffed. As I am sure you are aware, the same thing has again happened this year with Governor Reagan's proposed budget. I want to assure you that I will do everything I can as an individual and as a member of the Senate to see that some kind of realistic funding is appropriated for the commission.

It seems to me to be the very epitome of hypocrisy to set up an institution such as FEPC and then cripple it by not providing the adequate funds or staff to do the job. I think that your request for an additional $150,000 is more than reasonable.

Again I assure you that I will try to do what I can.

Sincerely,

GEORGE N. ZENOVICH

Dear Mr. Dellums:

As you know, I am constantly trying to find qualified people of all ethnic groups to appoint to our various boards and commissions. I do not know how the racial composition of the Fair Employment Practices Commission will end up, but I do feel that the Commission and its staff certainly represent Negro Californians very well.

If we do not come to the appointment of a second Negro to the Commission, it will not be because we have decided against this for any reason or because we have been unable to find the right person. It will be because our major consideration will be to make the Commission as invulnerable as possible to attack at this time of the threatened initiative.

Sincerely

* N A I R O *

To: All of you who came to NAIRO's Conference.
From: All of us in Cincinnati who welcomed you.
Subject: WE'RE GLAD YOU CAME.

Dear Folks:

In a conference it's not just taste, but aftertaste too that counts. Frankly, we local hosts expected to be mighty glad when NAIRO's 14th was over. Well, we did feel relieved -- duty done, course run, that feeling. But we were not prepared for the deepening satisfaction with which we now remember it all. Not self-satisfaction (we see details we might have done better), but a sense of having been stretched by a great, searching, affirmative experience.

That impression comes from: the impact made on other Cincinnati citizens; the quality of the main presentations; the sharp front-line flavor of some reports; but most of all the diversity of interesting people assembled (meaning you; and you; and you . . .)

So we're glad you came. Hearing that John Lasso was sending you a conference evaluation form, we asked that these our sentiments be tucked in... Also, because a number of you requested copies of the invocation offered at the banquet by the Very Rev. Paul L. O'Connor, S.J., president of Xavier University, we close our greetings by repeating:

AN IRISH BLESSING

May the blessing of Light be on you, light without and light within.

May the blessed sunlight shine on you and warm your heart till it glows like a great peat Fire, so that the stranger may come and warm himself at it, and also a Friend.

And may the light shine out of the two eyes of you,
like a candle set in two windows of a house, bidding
the wanderer to come in out of the storm.

And may the blessing of the Rain be on you -- the soft sweet rain. May it fall upon your spirit so that all the little flowers may spring up, and shed their sweetness on the air. And may the blessing of the Great Rains be on you, may they beat upon your spirit and wash it fair and clean, and leave there many a shining pool where the blue of heaven shines, and sometimes a star.

And may the blessing of the Earth be on you -- the great round earth; may you ever have a kindly greeting for them you pass as you're going along the roads. May the earth be soft under you when you rest out upon it, tired at the end of a day; and may it rest easy over you when, at the last, you lay out under it; may it rest so lightly over you, that your soul may be off from under it quickly, and up and off, and on its way to God.

And now may the Lord bless you all, and bless you kindly.

This comes from Board members and friends of the Cincinnati agencies, plus the following staff members: AJC, Bernard Kashdan; Fellowship House, Mrs. Helen Stokes; Jewish Community Relations Committee, Charles Posner and Robert Perlzweig; MFRC, Marshall Bragdon and Virginia Coffey; NCCJ, Malcolm Chandler; Ohio Civil Rights Commission, Robert Coates; Urban League, Joseph Hall, Mrs. Lois Conyers, James Whitehead.
