Dear Sir and Brother:

Thank you for your very kind note of September 17th-- and when it comes to schedules, these days--I can fully appreciate the problem.

We are all looking forward to having you as a member of the Council and will see you--if not before--at the first meeting on November 7th. Hope your schedule will permit you to attend the dedication of the Labor Studies Center on the afternoon of November 6th.

With all good wishes, I am

Sincerely and fraternally,

President

Dear Brother Meany:

I had not written you to express my very sincere appreciation for recommending me to succeed Mr. Randolph upon his retirement from the Executive Council of the AFL-CIO, because I had almost daily been expecting to have to come to Washington, and preferred to express it in person. However, when we were together on the 11th, I never got a chance to because there was always others already talking with you. But, I want you and the other members of the Council to know that I very sincerely appreciate the privilege and honor of succeeding one we all feel so deeply toward, Mr. A. Philip Randolph.

Sincerely and Fraternally,

C. L. Dellums,
International President

Dear C.L.:

Please accept my heartiest congratulations on your election as a Vice President of the AFL-CIO.

Many things have changed for the better since you were first elected to the Executive Board of the Alameda County Central Labor Council, and you were in the front ranks of those who brought about those changes.
We still have a long way to go to change things even more for the better, and I know that you will be in the front ranks of the battles for those changes also.

Best personal regards.

Dear Mr. Dellums:

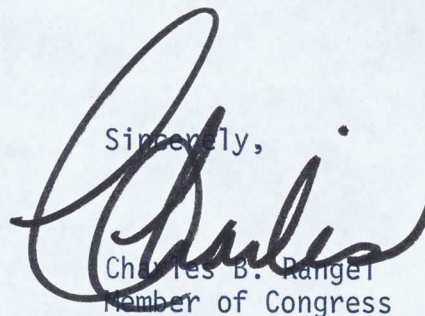

I would like to take this opportunity to congratulate you on your being elected Vice President of the AFL-CIO.

Few individuals in the arena of labor unions and civil rights have done more to foster economic equity and basic decency in business than you. That you were chosen Vice President of the AFL-CIO is only appropriate.

I wish you all the luck in the world in your new position and look forward to assisting you in any way that I can in the near future.

With best wishes, I am.
