Dear Mr. Dellums:

I have your letter of September 7th regarding the application of Mr. George Johnson for a position with this Board.

I will be glad to review the application which you state he has filed with Mr. Mader.

It may be of interest to you to know that Mr. Bratton, prominent negro certified public accountant in Los Angeles has recently been appointed to a position with this Board.

At the present time we are employing almost exclusively men with accounting experience, but I will be glad to keep Mr. Johnson's name in mind when future appointments are being made.

Very truly yours,

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

June 12, 1979

To C. L. Dellums

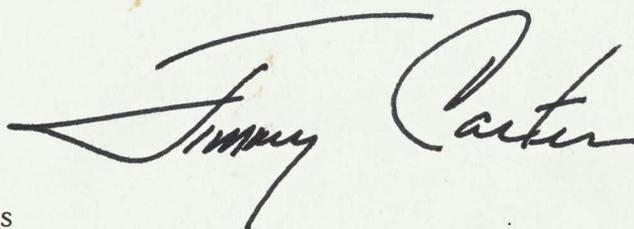

More than thirty years ago, President Truman challenged Congress to enact a national health program which would secure for all Americans the right to decent health care. After twenty years of bitter struggle, Medicare and Medicaid were enacted through the leadership of Presidents Kennedy and Johnson. Now it is time to move forward once again.

I am submitting to Congress legislation which

- extends comprehensive health coverage to about 16 million low-income Americans
- protects all Americans from the cost of major illness
- provides coverage for prenatal, delivery, postnatal, and infant care without cost-sharing
- contains costs by reforming the health delivery system
- creates both the framework and the momentum for a universal, comprehensive national health plan.

You and I share a deep concern for the health of the American people. The time for action is now, and I ask your help.

Sincerely,

Dear Friends:

I regret that I cannot join with you to very distinguished uncle, C.L. Dellums.

It strikes me as most appropriate that occasion of the organization's 80th anniversary has stood in the forefront of the fight for C.L. has stood for nearly the same time span more of his outstanding leadership in the movements. You celebrate his ceaseless effort of Blacks and other minorities. You honor his relationship to the NAACP, a relationship that includes the fact that he was previously your president.

In addition to all of these achievements, I would like each of you to know that C.L.'s life and intellect provided me with the basis of my own social conscience. To witness his courage and steadfast dedication to these twin struggles -- among other issues to which he gave support -- will always provide me with inspiration.

So, I join with each of you in honoring a man who has made such singular achievements on behalf of us all, and a man who has touched me most deeply. Congratulations to you both.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Mr. Dellums:

This is your personal invitation to join us in doing something for the American men and women who are being held hostage in Iran. This is not a political campaign. It is not an attempt to collect money. It is a chance for you, as an individual in the public eye, to show you care about your countrymen being held in Iran.

What we are asking you to do is read the fact sheet, wear the "Free the Hostages" pin as often as possible until the release of the hostages, and if asked publicly, to say a few words on behalf of the project.

We would be grateful for your support in this matter of concern to all of us.

Dear Mr. Dellums:

I am rather certain that you do not recall our sole contact at least 15 years ago when a complaint was filed against Simon Stores and was brought before you for hearing. I was impressed then by the manner in which you handled the complaint.

More recently I had an opportunity to watch you and your brother at a meeting for Ron in Oakland -- I think during the 1976 elections.

In any case, I was very much impressed with the article about you in the TRIBUNE following your recent retirement and the merger of your union.

I regularly have a Feature on "Words to Live By" in my newsletter which goes to top retail management, usually the Chief Executive Officer, in retail firms doing in excess of $200 billion a year.

I thought you might be interested in my comments in the June 1978 issue.

I also am enclosing a photocopy of the corresponding section that will appear in the July 1978 issue because it has something of the same tone.

I wish you much happiness in the years to come.

Sincerely,

Robert Kahn

Dear Mr. Dellums:

Enclosed are two photographs which I took last summer.

I trust that you are doing fine. What's new?

Have you found any papers on the Brotherhood in Canada? If you do, please let me know.

Incidentally, you probably heard that Marcus Dash died in December. Apparently, there has been a suggestion to celebrate Bro. Randolph's 100th birthday in New York. You probably heard about it.

Best regards,
Agnes Calliste
