(g) An employee who has qualified for a vacation by rendering compensated service on a position in the Dining Car Department during the preceding calendar year and who has been furloughed from service due to force reduction prior to the date on which he was scheduled to begin his vacation, shall be allowed compensation in lieu of vacation in the calendar month in which his vacation is scheduled.

2. No such deduction shall be made except from the wages of an employee who has executed and furnished to the Carrier a written assignment, in the manner and form herein provided, of such periodic dues, initiation fees and assessments. Such assignment shall be on the form specified in Attachment "A" hereto and shall, in accordance with its terms, be irrevocable for one year from the date of its execution, or until the termination of this Agreement, or until the termination of the rules and working conditions agreement between the parties hereto, whichever occurs sooner.

3. Deductions as provided for herein will be made by the Carrier in accordance with a typewritten deduction list furnished by the Secretary-Treasurer of the Brotherhood. Such list shall be furnished to the Manager, Personnel Accounting, on or before the 20th day of the month preceding the month in which the deductions listed thereon are to become effective, and shall be in the form and shall contain such information as are specified in Attachment "B" hereto. Thereafter a list containing any additions or deletions of names, or changes in amount, shall be so furnished to the Carrier on or before the 20th day preceding the month in which the deduction will be made.

4. Deductions as provided for herein will be made monthly by the Carrier from wages due employees for the first bi-weekly period (or corresponding period for those paid on a weekly basis) which ends in each calendar month and the Carrier will pay, by draft, to the order of the Secretary-Treasurer of the Brotherhood, the total amount of such deductions, less sums withheld in accordance with Paragraph 7 hereof, on or before the tenth day of the month following that in which such deductions are made. With said draft the Carrier shall forward to the said Secretary-Treasurer of the Brotherhood a list setting forth the deductions made and containing a computation of the sum withheld.

5. No deduction will be made from the wages of any employee who does not have due to him for the pay period specified an amount equal to the sum to be deducted in accordance with this Agreement, after all deductions for the following purposes have been made:

- (a) Federal, State and Municipal Taxes;
- (b) Supplemental Pension;
- (c) Other deductions required by law such as garnishment and attachment;
- (d) Amounts due Carrier, and
- (e) Contributions to Voluntary Relief Department.

6. Responsibility of the Carrier under this Agreement shall be limited to remitting to the Brotherhood amounts actually deducted from the wages of employees pursuant to this Agreement and the Carrier shall not be responsible financially or otherwise for failure to make proper deductions. Any questions arising as to the correctness of the amount deducted shall be handled between the employe involved and the Brotherhood and any complaints against the Carrier in connection therewith shall be handled by the Brotherhood on behalf of the employe concerned.

7. In consideration of the services rendered by the Carrier as provided for herein, the Brotherhood agrees that from each monthly draft payable to the Brotherhood the Carrier shall withhold the sum of eight (8) cents for each such individual deduction.

8. An employe who has executed and furnished to the Carrier an assignment may revoke said assignment by executing the revocation form specified herein within fifteen (15) days after the end of the year, but if the employe does not so revoke the assignment it shall be considered as re-executed and may not be revoked for an additional period of one year, unless within such year this Agreement or the rules and working conditions agreement between the parties hereto is terminated and the re-executed assignment shall similarly continue in full force and effect and be considered as re-executed from year to year unless and until the employe shall execute a revocation form within fifteen (15) days after the end of any such year. Revocations of assignment shall be in writing and on the form specified in Attachment "C" hereto, and both the assignment and revocation of assignment forms shall be reproduced and furnished as necessary by the Brotherhood without cost to the Carrier. The Brotherhood shall assume the full responsibility for the procurement of the execution of said forms by employes, and for the delivery of said forms to the Carrier. Assignment and revocation of assignment forms shall be delivered with the deduction list herein provided for, to the Carrier not later than the 20th of the month preceding the month in which the deduction or the termination of the deduction is to become effective.

9. No part of this agreement shall be used in any manner whatsoever, either directly or indirectly, as a basis for a grievance or time claim by or in behalf of any employe; and no part of this or any other Agreement between the Carrier and the Brotherhood shall be used as a basis for a grievance or time claim by or in behalf of any employe predicated upon any alleged violation of, or mis-application or non-compliance with, any part of this Agreement.

10. The Brotherhood shall indemnify, defend and save harmless the Carrier from any and all claims, demands, liability, losses or damage resulting from the entering into or complying with the provisions of this Agreement.

11. This Agreement shall become effective the 1st day of April, 1967 and shall remain in effect until changed or modified in accordance with the provisions of the Railway Labor Act, as amended.

Time paid for under Rules Nos. 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13 and 32 but not actually worked shall not be considered as time worked in the application of this rule.

Rule No. 3 - Pro Rating Hours

The scheduled hours for each cycle made by a regularly assigned employe will be apportioned equally between the calendar days in such cycle and so credited. This shall also apply when the cycle of the last trip in a calendar month extends into the following calendar month.

Example:

An employe is regularly assigned in a seven (7) day cycle, the last three being layover days at the home terminal. He begins the last trip on July 28th and is released on return to the home terminal July 31st. of the 49 hours earned on this trip, 28 are credited in July and 21 in August.

Rule No. 4 - Basic Month

(a) One hundred and seventy four (174) hours work within the calendar month, shall constitute a basic month's service.

(b) When a regularly assigned employe lays off during a calendar month due to sickness, disability, for personal reasons, or is held out of service for disciplinary or medical reasons, he will be paid for 174 hours less five hours and forty eight minutes (5'48") for each scheduled working day on which he performs no service and for each of the scheduled layover days immediately following a scheduled working day on which he performs no service, or less the number of scheduled hours for the trip or trips missed whichever is the greater. In no event shall a regularly assigned employe be paid for less than the number of hours actually earned.

(c) Extra employes will be paid for the number of hours actually worked at 1/174th of the appropriate monthly rate shown in Rule No. 2.

Rule No. 5 - Time on Duty

(a) Time on duty each trip will be computed on a continuous basis from time employes are required to report for duty and so report until actually released from duty. There shall be no release from duty unless there is a period of more than three (3) hours between arriving time of the inbound train and scheduled departure of the succeeding train in the run, and unless there is a period of more than one (1) hour between arriving time of the inbound train and the scheduled reporting time of the employe for the succeeding train in the run.

(b) Employes who are required by Management to remain on duty at stations beyond the release time as shown in the working schedule will be paid on a minute basis for actual time held continuous with service performed on the road trip.

(c) Time spent attending safety or service meeting shall not be considered as time worked.

Rule No. 6 - Deadheading or Relief Periods

(a) Deadheading, when properly authorized, will be paid the same as time on duty, except that where sleeping accommodations are provided, no payment will be made for deadheading performed between 10:00 P.M. and 6:00 A.M.

(b) Time spent in deadheading in the exercise of seniority shall not be paid for.

(c) Where the requirements of the service will permit employes shall be released from duty for sleep for three (3) hours on overnight runs of twelve (12) hours or less elapsed time, and four (4) hours each night on runs of over twelve (12) hours elapsed time. Sleep periods shall be granted between the hours of 9:30 P.M. and 6:30 A.M., and for regular assignments shall be designated in the operating schedules. During each sleep period the employe shall be provided with a suitable place for sleeping, such as a suitable porter's berth, an upper berth or a berth in a dormitory car.

(2) It is understood the requirements of the service may not always permit granting sleep periods to the extent provided in this Rule, and where the scheduled period of sleep is not obtainable, the deductible hours shall be reduced by the difference between the scheduled sleep period and the time actually released for sleep. Any loss of scheduled sleep shall be verified and explained by the train conductor or supervisor. No deduction shall apply to any release for sleep of less than two (2) consecutive hours. Any of the scheduled sleep periods not obtained shall be paid for at the hourly rate in addition to all other earnings for the month and shall be credited and paid for in the payroll period in which the loss of sleep occurred.

(d) No payment will be made to employees while they are on relief periods between 9:30 P.M. and 6:30 A.M., where sleeping accommodations are provided.

(c) A regularly assigned employee notified or called to perform station duty on other than his regular assignment and who reports for duty will be allowed a minimum of five hours and forty-eight minutes (5'48") compensation for five hours and forty-eight minutes (5'48") work or less; time worked in excess of five hours and forty-eight minutes (5'48") will be computed on the actual minute basis.

(d) An extra employe assigned to station duty shall be given preference for any vacancy on a road assignment which is filled at the station during his tour of duty. If not used in road service on that calendar day before his release from duty, he shall be permitted to mark up on the extra list for the next calendar day in the same relative position with respect to other extra employes as he had at the time he was assigned to station duty.

(e) When an employe performing station duty receives an assignment in road service which has a reporting time earlier than the expiration of four (4) hours station duty, there shall be no overlapping time payments. Time on duty shall run continuous from one assignment to the other.

Rule No. 9 - Called And Not Used

On days when no time is lost Sleeping Car Porters and Sleeper-Lounge Attendants will be paid five hours and forty eight minutes (5'48") at the rate of their regular assignments.

(b) Extra employees who are required to attend court or inquest by direction of an officer of the Company, will be allowed five hours and forty eight minutes (5'48") at the rate provided for the service in which last engaged, and necessary expenses when away from home.

(d) Witness fees and mileage shall be remitted to the Company.

Rule No. 11 - Attending Investigation or Trial

(a) Regular employees required by direction of an officer of the Company to report for investigation or trial immediately after having finished, or just prior to reporting for work, will be allowed continuous time at their regular rate for the time spent in attending the investigation or trial, unless they are found guilty of the offense involved.

(b) Regular employees required by direction of an officer of the Company to attend investigation or trial at other than the times set forth in paragraph (a) of this Rule (No.11), except when already under pay, shall be compensated for the actual time spent in attending the investigation or trial with a minimum of four (4) hours at their regular rate, unless they are found guilty of the offense involved.

(c) Extra employees required by direction of an officer of the Company to attend investigation or trial, will be compensated in accordance with paragraphs (a) or (b) at the rate provided for the service in which last engaged, unless they are found guilty of the offense involved.

(d) This Rule (No. 11) also applies to employees required by direction of an officer of the Company to attend investigation or trial as witnesses for the Company.

Rule No. 12 - Employees Held At Away From Home Points

(a) Extra employees held at away-from-home terminal, set-out or turn around point and not used out in live service the same calendar day, will be paid or permitted to earn not less than five hours and forty-eight minutes (5'48") for each calendar day so held. Extra employees will be paid or permitted to earn not less than four (4) hours on the calendar day such employees leave from the home terminal and similarly on the calendar day such employees arrive at the home terminal. The term "extra employees" as used in this Rule (No. 12) shall include extra employees filling vacancies in regular assignments.

(b) A regular employee held at an away-from-home point, who performs no service or receives no compensation under the Rules of this Agreement during any one calendar day, will be allowed a maximum of five hours and forty-eight minutes (5'48") pay at the pro rata rate for each calendar day so held. Payments under this Rule (No. 12) shall be applied to the guaranteed amounts provided for under Rule 4. Examples are shown as follow:

Example 1.

On a given calendar day an employee arrives at an away-from-home point and is released from duty at 11:00 P.M. He performs no further service and is entitled to no further compensation until he is again required to report for duty at 11:00 P.M. the following calendar day. Inasmuch as this employee received compensation under the Agreement on each of the calendar days, namely, the day he arrived at the away-from-home point and the day he departed from the away-from-home point he is not entitled to receive the five hours and forty-eight minutes (5'48") herein provided.

Example 2.

following day, at which time he is placed under pay and departs from the away-from-home point. Inasmuch as this employe was held at the away-from-home point for a complete calendar day and since no earnings accrued under the Agreement for the time so held, he is entitled to receive the total of five hours and forty-eight minutes (5'48") herein provided.

Rule No. 13 - Layover In Regular Assignments

Rule No. 14 - Temporary Discontinuance of a Regular Assignment

(a) When a regularly assigned employe's position is temporarily discontinued or interrupted at the home terminal and such regularly assigned employe's position is not abolished, he may be eligible for extra work. In order to be considered eligible for extra work, such an employe must be present between 10:00 A.M. and 2:00 P.M. (local time) at the calling place designated by him and personally accept a telephone call for extra work. The names of employes covered by this paragraph (a) of this Rule (No. 14) shall be marked up at the head of the extra list in seniority order. In the event such an employe is not given extra work on that day he shall be compensated in accordance with the provisions of Rule No. 9. In the application of this paragraph (a) of this Rule (No. 14) a position shall be considered as having been abolished and the regularly assigned employe shall be considered as having been notified that his position has been abolished when a notice to that effect shall have been posted on the bulletin board at the home terminal of the employe affected.

(b) When a regularly assigned employee's position is temporarily discontinued or interrupted at a point other than his home terminal, causing such regularly assigned employee to miss his regular assignment, he will be paid or permitted to earn four (4) hours pay for each calendar day held.

(c) The use of regularly assigned employees to perform extra service under paragraphs (a) and (b) of this Rule (No. 14) shall not be considered a violation of Rule 37 or of any other provisions of this Agreement.

Rule No. 15 - Shortage in Pay

Where there is a shortage equal to eight (8) hours or more in the pay of an employee, a pay order will be issued on request to cover such shortage.

Rule No. 16 - Seniority, Fitness and Ability

(a) Assignment to a regular position covered by this Agreement by bulletin or displacement shall be made on the basis of seniority, fitness and ability; fitness and ability being sufficient, seniority shall govern.

(b) Time lost as the result of the exercise of seniority shall not be paid for.

(c) When the senior employee is not assigned and feels that he has been unjustly treated, he may appeal his case to the Operations Manager, Dining Car Service, as provided in Rule No. 35. If he does not desire to appeal he may, within five (5) days following the date of notice assigning the position to a junior employee or five (5) days following the date he was denied the right to displace a junior employee, as the case may be, request that he be given a course of training, without expense to the Company. Such a request shall constitute a waiver of the employee's right to appeal under Rule No. 35. If, within thirty (30) days following the date on which his course of training commenced he demonstrates to the satisfaction of the Operations Manager, Dining Car Service, that he is qualified, he shall be assigned to the position in question, and the junior employee thus displaced shall be permitted to exercise his seniority in accordance with Rule No. 22.

Rule No. 17 - Bulletining of Runs

(a) New positions, seasonal positions and vacancies, known to be of more than thirty (30) days duration, shall be bulletined for a period of seven (7) days. Positions and vacancies, not known to be of more than thirty (30) days duration, shall be bulletined for a period of seven (7) days upon the expiration of thirty (30) days from the date they occur.

(b) An employee desiring to bid for bulletined positions shall file his bid, in writing, with the designated officer within the time limit specified in the bulletin and shall specify in his bid his first choice, second choice, etc.

(c) After a position has been bulletined for a period of seven (7) days it shall be assigned to the senior bidder, fitness and ability being sufficient. Notice of the assignment of the position shall be posted within seven (7) days following the expiration of the bulletin.

(d) The successful bidder for a bulletined position must vacate his former position before starting any trip out of his home terminal following the posting of the notice of the assignment and he shall be required to pick up the position awarded to him on the first trip of the position from his home terminal subsequent to the time he vacates his former position. When all the positions in the line are bulletined at the same time, the choice of preferred layover days shall be given to employees in the order of their seniority, provided such choice is specified on the employee's bid.

(e) When a position or vacancy has been bulletined and no bids are received from qualified employees having seniority in the classification, it shall be assigned to the junior extra employee who has sufficient fitness and ability therefor and who has completed his probationary period as prescribed in Rule No. 30.

(f) An employe returning to duty after having been absent on account of sickness, disability, suspension, or leave of absence during the entire period a position was bulletined, shall be permitted to exercise his seniority on the position, fitness and ability being sufficient, provided he exercises such right before he returns to his former position. If, during the period he was absent from duty for any of the reasons enumerated in this rule, his former position was bulletined in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (a) of this Rule (No. 17) or his former position was abolished, he shall be permitted to exercise his seniority, fitness and ability being sufficient, to any position held by a junior employe.

Rule No. 18 - Rebulletining Changed Runs

(a) A change in the home terminal of a position, a change of more than 10% in the scheduled layover time at the home terminal, a change in scheduled departure or arrival time of a train from or at the home terminal of one hour or more (except when such change is necessitated by change from or to daylight saving time), shall constitute a changed position which shall be bulletined in accordance with paragraph (a) of Rule No. 17.

(b) An employe who is occupying a regular position which is rebulletined in accordance with paragraph (a) of this Rule (No. 18) may exercise seniority under Rule No. 22 or may remain on the position until it is picked up by the successful bidder. An employe who is occupying such a position while it is being rebulletined may bid for the position. If he does not bid it in and he is not awarded any other position as the result of that bulletin, he shall leave the position when it is picked up by the successful bidder, and he shall be allowed ten (10) days in which to exercise his seniority and he may select any position held by a junior employe except a position in the line in which he had been working.

Rule No. 19 - Release From Regular Assignments

(a) A regularly assigned employe may be released from his regular position for good and sufficient reasons provided he makes a written request to the Operations Manager, Dining Car Service, not less than ten (10) days in advance of the date on which he desires to be released from his position. Such written request shall set forth the reasons therefore.

(b) An employe who is released from his regular position in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (a) of this Rule (No. 19) shall not be permitted to displace a junior employe, but shall revert to the extra list and shall be eligible to bid for any position which is bulletined under the provisions of Rule No. 17, other than the one from which he was released.

(c) When a regularly assigned employe has been released from his position in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (a) of this Rule (No. 19) the position from which he was released shall be bulletined in accordance with Rule No. 17.

Note will be placed on each roster fixing the time limit of appeal.

(b) The initial rosters shall be posted as of August 1, 1967. After posting of the initial rosters, no names will be added to subsequent rosters except those of employees acquiring seniority since the posting of the preceding roster.

(c) When an employee is absent from duty on account of sickness, disability, leave of absence, suspension, or vacation at the time his position is abolished or he is displaced by a senior employee, the ten (10) days specified in this Rule (No. 22) shall begin on the date such employee presents himself to the Crew Supervisor, or other officer designated by Management, and signifies his intention to displace a junior employee in the manner prescribed in paragraph (b) of this Rule (No. 22)

Rule No. 23 - Permanent Transfer To Another Classification

Except as provided in Rule No. 14 (a), notice of abolishment of a regularly established position or positions shall be given not less than five (5) calendar days in advance, except that not less than sixteen (16) hours advance notice of reduction in force or abolishment of a position will be required under emergency conditions, such as, flood, snowstorm, hurricane, earthquake, fire or strike, provided operations are suspended in whole or in part and provided further that because of such emergency the work which would be performed by the incumbents of the positions to be abolished or the work which would be performed by the employees involved in the force reduction no longer exists or cannot be performed.

Within the probationary period, the services of an employe may be terminated for any cause. He shall, however, have the right to be apprised of the reason or reasons for the termination of his services and he may be accompanied by his duly designated representative at the time he is so notified. The appeal privileges specified in Rules 34 and 35 shall not apply to an employe whose services are terminated prior to the expiration of his period of probationary employment but he may request an informal hearing with the Operations Manager, Dining Car Service, at which he may be accompanied by his duly designated representative, for the purpose of discussing his case.

Rule No. 31 - Operating Schedules

Schedules of regular lines shall be prescribed by the Management and posted in places accessible to all employes. Copies of each schedule drawn up shall be furnished to the Brotherhood.

(2) Effective with the calendar year 1968, an annual vacation of 12 days with pay, or pay in lieu thereof, will be granted to each employe covered by this Agreement who renders compensated service on not less than 132 days during the preceding calendar year, or if he is paid for a total of 132 days or 765 hours as provided in the employes' working agreement, and who has 3 or more years of continuous service in any capacity with the Pennsylvania Railroad* and who during such period of continuous service renders compensated service on not less than 132 days or 765 hours in each of three years, not necessarily consecutive.

(4) Effective with the calendar year 1968, an annual vacation of 24 days with pay, or pay in lieu thereof, will be granted to each employe covered by this Agreement who renders compensated service on not less than 120 days during the preceding year, or if he is paid for a total of 120 days or 696 hours as provided in the employees' working agreement, and who has 20 or more years of continuous service in any capacity with the Pennsylvania Railroad* and who during such period of continuous service renders compensated service on not less than 120 days or 696 hours (160 days or 1,093 hours in the years 1950-59 inclusive; 160 days or 1,217 hours in 1949, and 160 days or 1,280 hours in each of such years prior to 1949) in each such years, not necessarily consecutive.

*Employees whose service was transferred from the Pullman Company pursuant to the Randolph-Wolfe Agreement dated December 17, 1963 shall have such service counted towards years of service for vacation under this Rule (No. 32). In the application of this Rule No. 32, only service performed on the Pullman Company prior to August 1, 1967 shall be considered.

(b) Calendar days in each current qualifying year, commencing with the year 1967, (or in the case of employees whose service was transferred from The Pullman Company pursuant to the Randolph-Wolfe Agreement dated December 17, 1963, such date as is applicable under that Agreement) on which an employee renders no service because of his sickness or because of his own injury shall be included in computing days of compensated service and years of continuous service for vacation qualifying purposes on the basis of a maximum of ten (10) such days for an employee with less than three (3) years service; a maximum of twenty (20) such days for an employee with three (3) but less than fifteen (15) years of service; and a maximum of thirty (30) such days for an employee with fifteen (15) or more years of service with the Company.

(c) In instances where employees have performed seven (7) months' service with the Company, or have performed, in a calendar year, service sufficient to qualify them for a vacation in the following calendar year, and subsequently become members of the Armed Forces of the United States, the time spent by such employees in the Armed Forces will be credited as qualifying service in determining the length of vacations for which they may qualify upon their return to the service of the Company.

(d) Where an employe is dismissed from service and thereafter restored to service during the same calendar year with seniority unimpaired, service performed prior to dismissal and subsequent to reinstatement during that year shall be included in the determination of qualification for vacation during the following year.

(e) If the basic straight time work month for employes covered by this Agreement is reduced below one hundred and seventy-four (174) hours in the Dining Car Department by or because of law or government order pursuant to law, or by a proceeding subsequent hereto under the provisions of the Railway Labor Act, then the number of consecutive days constituting a vacation and pay therefor for employes covered by this Agreement will be correspondingly reduced.

(f) A total of five hours and forty eight minutes (5'48") shall be considered the equivalent of one day in the application of paragraph (a), sections (1), (2), (3) and (4) of this Rule No. 32.

(g) An employe who has qualified for a vacation by rendering compensated service on a position in the Dining Car Department during the preceding calendar year and who has been furloughed from service due to force reduction prior to the date on which he was scheduled to begin his vacation, shall be allowed compensation in lieu of vacation in the calendar month in which his vacation is scheduled.

(h) Vacations may be taken between January 1 and December 31 and due regard consistent with requirement of service shall be given to the desires and preferences of the employes in seniority order when fixing the dates for their vacations. Management and the Brotherhood will cooperate in assigning vacation dates.

(i) Each employee who is entitled to vacation shall take same at time assigned and while it is intended that the vacation date designated will be adhered to so far as practicable, Management shall have the right to change same provided the employee so affected is given as much advance notice as practicable.

(j) If Management finds that it cannot release an employee for a vacation during the calendar year because of the requirements of the service, then such employee shall be paid in lieu of the vacation the allowance provided in paragraph (f) above.

(k) Vacations shall not be accumulated or carried over from one vacation year to another.

(l) Effective January 1, 1968, if an employee's employment status is terminated for any reason whatsoever, including but not limited to retirement, resignation, discharge, non-compliance with a union-shop agreement, or failure to return after furlough, he shall, at the time of such termination, be granted full vacation pay earned up to the time he leaves the service including pay for vacation earned in the preceding year or years and not yet granted, and the vacation for the succeeding year if the employee has qualified therefor under such rules. If an employee thus entitled to vacation or vacation pay shall die, the vacation pay earned and not received shall be paid to such beneficiary as may have been designated, or in the absence of such designation, the surviving spouse or children or his estate, in that order of preference.

(m) An employee designated to fill an assignment of another employee on vacation will be paid the rate of such assignment, or the rate of his own assignment whichever is the greater; however, if an employee receiving graded rates, based upon length of service and experience, is designated to fill an assignment of another employee in the same occupational classification receiving such graded rates who is on vacation, the rate of the relieving employee will be paid.

(n) The absence of an employe on vacation with pay, as provided in this Rule (No. 32) will not be considered as a vacancy, temporary, or otherwise, in the application of Rule No. 17.

(o) If the work of an employe on vacation can be absorbed by the remaining force or can be deferred, the position need not be filled when the regular occupant is on vacation.

(p) This rule shall continue in effect subject to not less than seven (7) months' notice in writing by the Company or Brotherhood of desire to change this Agreement as of the end of the year in which the notice is served. Such notice shall specify the changes desired and the recipient of such notice shall then have a period of thirty (30) days from the date of the receipt of such notice within which to service notice specifying changes which it or they desire to make. Thereupon such proposals of the respective parties shall thereafter be negotiated and progressed concurrently to a conclusion. When such notice is served, the proceedings shall be under the provisions of the Railway Labor Act, amended. This paragraph (p) shall not preclude the Brotherhood from serving notice to change the length of service requirement of paragraph (a) (3) of this Rule No. 32 from fifteen (15) years to ten (10) years effective January 1, 1968.

Rule No. 33 - Discipline

(a) Employes who have been in service in excess of ninety (90) days shall not be disciplined, suspended, or dismissed from service without a fair and impartial trial.

(b) When a major offense has been committed an employe suspected by the Management to be guilty thereof may be held out of service pending trial and decision.

(c) An employe who is required to make a statement prior to the trial in connection with any matter which may eventuate in the application of discipline to any employe, may be accompanied by his duly designated representative without expense to the Company. A copy of his statement, if reduced to writing and signed by him, shall be furnished him by Management upon his request.

(d) An employe who is accused of an offense and who is directed to report for a trial therefor, shall be given reasonable advance notice in writing of the exact offense for which he is to be tried and the time and place of the trial.

(e) If he desires to be represented at such trial, he may be accompanied by his duly designated representative without expense to the Company. The accused employe and his duly designated representative shall be permitted to question witnesses insofar as the interests of the accused employe are concerned. Such employe shall make his own arrangements for the presence of his representative and his witnesses and no expense incident thereto will be borne by the Company.

(f) Trials shall be held within thirty (30) days from the date the notice of the trial shall have been mailed or delivered to the employe, except that either Management or the employe, for good and sufficient reasons, may extend this time period. Decisions shall be rendered, in writing, within thirty days after the transcript of testimony shall have been completed and attested by the employe involved.

(g) A transcript of the trial record shall be furnished to the accused employe.

(h) If discipline is to be imposed following trial and decision, the employe to be disciplined shall be given written notice thereof at least ten (10) days prior to the date on which the discipline is to become effective, except in cases involving dismissal, such dismissal may be made effective at any time after decision without advance notice.

(i) If the discipline to be applied is suspension, such suspension shall date from the time the employe is taken out of service. The time the employee is held out of service prior to the serving of the notice of discipline shall be applied against the period of suspension. When an employee is held out of service for a period of time in excess of that represented by the suspension imposed, he shall be compensated for time lost by him during the period in excess of the discipline imposed. Such compensation shall be for the difference between the amount earned while out of service, or while otherwise employed, and the amount he would have earned had he not been held out of service in excess of the period represented by the discipline imposed.

Rule No. 34 - Appeals from Discipline

(a) An employee who has been disciplined may appeal from the discipline imposed on him if he does so in writing to the Operations Manager, Dining Car Service within ten (10) days from date he receives notice of the imposition of such discipline and if he so appeals he shall be given an appeal hearing. When an appeal from discipline is made to the Operations Manager, Dining Car Service, this appeal shall act as a stay of application of discipline in all cases except where the discipline has been dismissal. If the original discipline imposed is upheld upon appeal, in whole or in part, the discipline will then be placed in effect. An employee, or his duly designated representative, may appeal in a discipline matter to the Manager Dining Car Service, from the decision of the Operations Manager, Dining Car Service, provided such appeal is made within ten (10) days from the date of notification of such decision.

(b) At hearing on appeal before the Operations Manager, Dining Car Service, or the Manager, Dining Car Service, as the case may be, an employee may, if he desires to be represented at such hearing, be accompanied without expense to the Company, by his duly designated representative.

(c) Notice in writing of the decision of the Operations Manager, Dining Car Service or the Manager, Dining Car Service, shall be furnished to the employee.

(d) When an employe is held out of service, suspended or dismissed in connection with any offense and thereafter exonerated he shall be reinstated and compensated for the difference between the amount earned while out of service or while otherwise employed and the amount he would have earned had he not been held out of service.

(e) The decision of the Manager, Dining Car Service, in a discipline matter shall be final and binding unless the employe appeals the case to the National Railroad Adjustment Board, Third Division, within one (1) year from date the notification of the decision of the Manager, Dining Car Service, has been mailed or otherwise transmitted to the employe.

In the case of claims for compensation alleged to be due, the time period and the method of presentation specified in Rule No. 36 will be observed.
