Re: Rufus Norman v. R. M. Willis,
A. Philip Randolph et al

Dear Mr. Randolph:

We are enclosing the statement of Ernest Hubbell, our local counsel in the above captioned case, for services rendered.

This case was disposed of, as you may recall, back in the Summer of 1966 and, frankly, we assumed all attorney fees had been paid. We received a letter from Mr. Hubbell today stating that he had inadvertently neglected to bill your organization for his services, which were substantial.

Mr. Hubbell's statement has been reviewed and in our opinion is reasonable. We recommend that you approve the same and pay Mr. Hubbell in the usual manner.

With best wishes, we are,

Very truly yours,

MULHOLLAND, HICKEY & LYMAN
