Re: Atsushi Ibuki
Your ref: F130

Dear Sirs:

On November 16, 1950 and May 1, 1956, respectively, you forwarded to this Department affidavits of the above-named subject and requested an expression of our views as to whether his case may be considered as coming within the coverage of the decision in the Murakami case. On December 1, 1950 and May 17, 1956, respectively, you were advised that we were of the opinion that his case could not be considered as coming within the coverage of the decision in said case.

In response to a recent request from the subject, we have re-examined the pertinent Governmental files relating to his case and upon reconsideration, we are now of the opinion that his case may be considered as coming within the decision in the Murakami case. We attach copy of our letter of this date to the subject, which we believe is self-explanatory.

Yours very truly,

GEORGE COCHRAN DOUB
Assistant Attorney General

Re: Mrs. Terumi Ito (Last Terumi Orita)
Your ref: 7-130

Dear Sirs:

Pursuant to an agreement entered into with Mr. Wayne M. Collins, Attorney, to stipulate to the introduction of satisfactory affidavits submitted by plaintiffs in the case of McGrath v. Abo, 186 F.2d, 766, as set forth in the Department's letter of September 22, 1953, to the Department of State, we attach affidavit of the above-named renunciant, together with copy of our letter to Lloyd H. Burke, Esquire, United States Attorney, Northern District of California, in which we express the opinion that this subject's case may be considered as coming within the coverage of the ruling of the Court of Appeals in the Murakami case.

A copy of this letter is being forwarded to Mr. Collins, and in accordance with the above agreement, may be presented by the above-named subject in lieu of the usual supplemental affidavit required of renunciant applicants for documentation as American citizens.

Yours very truly,

GEORGE COCHRAN BATES

(MARY ICHI SANO, now KANNO)

Dear Sirs:

On August 10, 1956, you forwarded to this Department an affidavit of the above-named subject and requested an expression of our views as to whether her case may be considered as coming within the coverage of the decision in the Murakami case.

In accordance with your request, we have reviewed the affidavit together with the pertinent Governmental files, and you are advised that we are of the opinion that subject's case may be considered as coming within the coverage of the decision in said case.

We specifically refrain from expressing our views as to the effect of subject's actions in voting in a political election in Japan, as set forth in the Questionnaire attached to her affidavit.
