My dear Mrs. Kugman -

I am enclosing my resignation from the Executive Committee and I'd like to talk about it.

I realize I am entirely ineffective on the Committee.
I am too far removed to keep in touch with it now and I think my only value would be to make up a quorum.

However, I would like my name on your list somewhere just to "take a stand" with you.

I keep as close personal and constant touch with

The Japanese I know, as I possibly can. It means a good deal of time and exertion and that must be my contribution.

My best wishes to you all.
If you can stamp out some little portion of the curse of leprosy that has fallen upon our country, you will have done a great service.

Cordially yours -

Nina E. Bancroft.

Dear Mrs. Ferguson:

I have your letter of September 17th, with reference to the letter directed to me by Mr. A. B. Ruddock. It seemed to me that it was a matter more for the Executive Committee to handle and, therefore, I immediately referred the letter to that Committee for reply, as I will also do with your letter. I am sure it will have their prompt attention.

Sincerely yours,

H. S. Scott
Treasurer
