CAMPERS have enjoyed JENED'S superb facilities for 29 years. A new policy, established several summers ago, enabled those with physical handicaps to share also in the many joys and values of camp living. Its continuance this year reflects the enthusiastic response which it has been receiving. Forested mountain peaks overlook the spacious, level grounds of JENED. All buildings are modern, ramped, frame structures with up-to-date plumbing facilities. Separate campuses for children and adults . . . both facilities and program are planned for:

- CHILDREN—to enjoy real camping
- ADULTS—to make friends and to fill many happy hours with fun and entertainment in a hotel-style resort.

All this—and an integrated therapy program, under the supervision of qualified therapists, for those campers requesting it.

CHILDREN, ADULT CAMP SPEECH PROGRAM

Will your child be among the two million youngsters throughout the nation happily heading for camp this summer?

Berrying time . . . nature study.

Teamwork on the athletic field.

Our resident doctor and nurse constantly checking. . . .

Therapy can be fun.

JENED'S AIM is to provide real camping adapted to the needs and physical capacities of our campers. We offer actual experience in group and democratic living which enhances the development of the "whole" child.

The values of camping are recognized by authorities in child care and development. Dr. Charles W. Eliot, late president of Harvard said, "The summer camp is the most important step in education that America has given the world."

Arts and crafts.

The therapy program is on a functional basis with motivation stemming from camp activities. Functional and self-help activities are taught and encouraged, working toward the goal of self-reliance. Speech and hearing therapies are coordinated with dramatics, music, and choral speaking.

Like all campers, the physically handicapped child comes to camp seeking new experiences, new friends, and new activities. . . .

Shuffleboard, tennis, volley-ball, bowling—

Roughing it on an overnight—away from camp.

Our tots love to spatter-paint.

Jened's instructional swim period . . . part of a complete aquatic program of swimming and boating . . . under the watchful eyes of Red Cross waterfront instructors.

Carnival time—one of our popular Jamboree Nites.

A fleet of colorful boats for the energetic rower or Kodak-toting drifter.

"Lazy-man Lawn".

Our complete swimming facilities include a 4-foot deep, ramped enclosure for the beginner. Specialized, expert instruction by Red Cross personnel.

Your invitation to leisure and pleasure—one of our pine-panelled lounges.

Pleasure planned programs . . . it is so easy to make friends.

Batter up . . . !!

New hobbies are born in the arts and crafts shop.

Country Club Comforts

with a social and activities staff on hand to welcome you and encourage your participation in new and exciting experiences.

And then, set your own pace . . .

Loll around, if you wish—play bridge—sunbathe or be a relaxed spectator for awhile . . .

OR ENGAGE in one of the many sporting activities available—there'll be instruction and assistance too. . . . We're proud of our beautiful indoor bowling alleys, tennis courts, and our trout stream, for the anglers in the group.

You'll find charming, modern, private rooms each with adjoining bath or shower. Yes, our doors are all quite wide with ramped entrances. There's a hard-top walk, too.

Therapy, for those campers staying three weeks or longer and desiring it, is available at no extra cost.

Of course, planned evening social programs are an integral part of Jened life . . . camp-fire sings, dancing (wheel-chair, too), movies, cabaret nights and basketball exhibitions in our gym . . . to name a few.

You can enjoy the relaxation of our spacious lounge with its friendly fireplace and informal atmosphere. Choose Brahms or boogie-woogie . . . or harmonize "Sweet Adeline."

usually one gets away for a vacation and returns after two weeks, with hardly a word of the time that was utilized in camp-free manner.

My vacation at Camp Jened, a camp for the physically handicapped, was a most enjoyable one. I was able to meet and make friends with other campers, and to participate in the many activities which were planned for us.

The staff, composed of the best of the best, was most helpful and friendly. They were able to help me in many ways, and to make my stay at camp a most enjoyable one.

The activities, group of wonderful and kept the campers busy. There was swimming, sports, and many other things. I was able to make friends with many of the campers, and to have a most enjoyable stay.

Camp Aids Child With Handicaps

By Joan Cook
The first sign of spring was the sun. It was a warm, sunny day, and the children were happy. They were at Camp Jened, a camp for the physically handicapped, and they were enjoying the many activities which were planned for them.

FOR CAMPERS WITH SPEECH OR HEARING PROBLEMS...

Good results in therapy are more easily attained when it's fun...

All campers enrolled for the speech or hearing program receive intensive therapy daily. Formal lessons are integrated with dramatics, choral speaking, music and regular camp living. Complete "carry-over" is our goal.

This special program is for the benefit of campers with speech or hearing problems arising out of cleft palate, stuttering, articulatory disorders, aphasia, cerebral palsy, hearing loss and deafness.

Experienced and qualified speech therapists and audiologists are in charge of this program, which includes:

- SPEECH CORRECTION
- AUDITORY TRAINING
- LANGUAGE DEVELOPMENT
- LIP READING

Of course, this is just one of the extras we have at Jened...

at no extra cost to you.
