In re: LEONOR YOCUM

IN DEPORTATION PROCEEDINGS

JAN 21 1953

IN BEHALF OF RESPONDENT: Wayne Collins, Atty at Law
Wills Tower,
San Francisco, California

CHARGES:

Warrant: Act of 1924 - No immigration visa
Act of 1918 - No passport

Lodged: None.

APPLICATION: Suspension of Deportation - Serious Economic Detri-

DETENTION STATUS: Released on Conditional Parole.

DISCUSSION AS TO DEPORTABILITY: This record relates to a 25 year old married female, a native and citizen of Peru of the Japanese and Spanish race who last entered the United States at the port of New Orleans, La. on July 1, 1944 as a passenger on the USAT "Cuba" at which time she was admitted as a member of the family of a Japanese from Peru who had been brought by the U.S. Army for internment in the United States. That entry has been verified. Her entry was a lawful one under wartime regulations. She testified that her father went to reside in Japan in 1949; that her mother died here several years ago; and that only she and her brother, now a member of the United States Army, remain. Since the applicant was admitted without documents and has remained in the United States she must be considered to have been an immigrant at the time of entry. She is therefore deportable under the Immigration Act of 1924 and the Passport Act of 1918.

DISCUSSION AS TO ELIGIBILITY FOR SUSPENSION OF DEPORTATION: The record shows that the applicant was legally married to a native-born citizen of the United States on August 2, 1948. They have one child. The applicant is employed nights as a Nurse's Aide at a salary of $215.00 per month. Her infant son is watched over by her husband and mother-in-law, who lives with them, while the applicant is at work. The husband, a U. S. Navy veteran, is employed at a construction laborer by a utility company at a salary of $64.00 a week. Their total joint income for 1951 was $2445.98. They have community property consisting of $55.00 in savings and $2000.00 invested in household furniture, equipment and personal effects. They owe only current bills. It is clear from the record that the applicant's deportation would result in serious economic detriment to her citizen spouse and minor child.

As the respondent is a nonquota immigrant under Section 4(a) of the Immigration Act of 1924, she could readily obtain an immigration visa if granted the privilege of voluntary departure and preexamination. The record indicates that it is possible for the respondent to return to Peru without fear of physical persecution.

A check of the appropriate local and federal records has failed to reveal an arrest or criminal record relating to the respondent. Inquiry has disclosed that the alien has no connection with any subversive groups. Witnesses have been produced to establish that the respondent has been a person of good moral character for the preceding five years. On the record the alien has established her eligibility for suspension of deportation.

It should be noted that the alien also appears to meet the residence requirements for suspension of deportation under the provisions of Section 19(c)(2)(b) of the Immigration Act of 1917.

ORDER: It is ordered that the deportation of the alien be suspended under the provisions of Section 19(c)(2) of the Immigration Act of 1917, as amended.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that if the Congress approves the suspension of the alien's deportation, the proceedings be cancelled and the alien, if a quota immigrant at the time of entry and not then charged to the appropriate quota, be so charged as provided by law.

Dear Mrs. Yocum:

The Assistant Commissioner, Inspections and Examinations Division of the U.S. Immigration and Naturalization Service, at San Francisco, has recommended that your suspension of deportation be granted. In consequence, if Congress likewise approves the suspension you will be given permanent residence status in this country. In due course of time the Immigration Service will inform you whether or not Congress grants your suspension.

I am enclosing a notice from the USI&NS which informs you that, as an alien you must register as an alien if you have not yet done so and that, in any event you must fill out an I-53 form and deliver it to a Post Office.

Dear Sir ~~Madam~~:

The Congress, by concurrent resolution, has approved the order of the Attorney General granting suspension of deportation in your case. A record of lawful entry for permanent residence may therefore be created by this Service upon payment of the $18.00 fee required by law. The fee should be submitted by U. S. In the event you are unable to submit the $18.00 money order within ten days from the date of this letter, please advise this office as to the date the fee may be expected.

It is important that this matter receive your prompt attention, as your immigration status cannot be legalized until the required fee has been received.

Dear Mrs. Yocum:

Congress has approved a suspension of deportation for you and has granted you permanent residence in the United States.

You must pay, therefore, the sum of $18.00 to the U.S. Immigration Service at 630 Sansome Street, San Francisco, to create a record of your lawful entry into the United States. You should make that payment promptly in the form of a U.S. Postal Money Order made payable to the "COMMISSIONER OF IMMIGRATION AND NATURALIZATION".

When you have paid that fee please notify me. After that has been paid you will be eligible to apply for naturalization, that is, to become a U.S. citizen.

When you have become a U.S. citizen it is likely that you will be able to visit Peru if you wish simply by obtaining a U.S. passport from an office of the U.S. State Department and a visa from the Peruvian Consulate.

In any event you should not leave the United States and go to Mexico or Canada or any foreign country while you still are an alien unless you first obtain a re-entry permit from the Immigration Service and a passport from the country of which you are a national. When and if you become a U.S. citizen you should first obtain a passport from the U.S. State Department before you visit any foreign country.

Another thing I want you to do is call Mr. Collins and ask him if he can get my passport. I tried to get it but the Peruvian Consul kept stoling all the time, and finally he told me he didn't have any passaport at the time. Maybe if Mr. Collins talk to him he will give it to him. I think I will need it to come back to the U. S. When I was crossing the border they asked for it and I told them that I forgot it. I don't know how I will be going back. By the way, the Counsul has all the necessary papers, information and pictures, and I want the passaport in my maiden name as Maria Leonor Kudo.

Dear Mrs. Kudo:

My records indicate that your status in the United States was that of a Peruvian citizen entitled to permanent residence status in the United States. It is my understanding that you have not become a naturalized citizen of the United States. If such is true, then you were a Peruvian citizen admitted to the United States for lawful residence purposes. If in such a status you entered Canada without presenting a visa or a U.S. passport or Peruvian passport your entry into Canada probably was illegal and a re-entry into the United States likewise would be illegal. Therefore, I believe that it is likely that if you try to re-enter the U.S. you will be stopped at the border by the U.S. Immigration Service and be denied entry. If such occurs it will be necessary for you to report to the Canadian Immigration Service and inform it of your predicament. The Canadian Immigration Service probably will order you deported to the United States because the Peruvian government refuses to permit you to enter that country.

A Canadian lawyer will be in a better position to advise you what steps you may be required to take in order to re-enter the United States if the U.S. Immigration Service denies you the right to re-enter the U.S.

I do not think that the U.S. Immigration Service will issue you a non-immigrant visa under the provisions of Sec. 101(a), subdiv. 27, of the U.S. Immigration and Nationality Act of 1952, even though you were lawfully admitted to the U.S. for permanent residence and are attempting to return from a temporary visit abroad the reason being that your visit abroad was not authorized by the U.S. Immigration Service.

No. _____

APPLICATION TO REOPEN CAUSE FOR A SUSPENSION OF DEPORTATION

Leonor Chizuko Yocum, nee Leonor Chizuko Kudo, hereby requests that the deportation proceeding heretofore instituted against her be reopened for the purpose of enabling her to apply for a suspension of deportation under the provisions of Title 8 USCA, Sec. 155 (c), effective as at July 1, 1948, (Public Law No. 863), on the ground that she is and has been for a period of time in excess of five years a person of good moral character and is the wife of Charles Philip Yocum, Jr., a native born United States citizen and legal resident of the United States, and that in consequence, her deportation would result in serious economic detriment to her said husband.

WHEREFORE, applicant requests that said cause be reopened for the aforesaid purposes to enable applicant to introduce oral and documentary evidence of her eligibility to apply for and to receive the benefits afforded by the provisions of Title 8, USCA, Sec. 155 (c), and regulations thereunder and for the grant of said application for suspension of deportation.
