Cabinet Meeting

June 22, 1944

The first meeting of the Junior Class Cabinet was called to order by President Henry Terao in Room 21 at 8:30 p.m.

The purpose of this meeting was to plan ahead for the coming year.

The vice-president gave a report on a calendar which he made that read as follow:

First month: Junior Pep Rally

December: Strictly Junior Class Party

March: Junior-Senior Prom

June: Farewell Social for Seniors

A discussion followed in regards to this calendar. In addition, Miho Takizawa suggested we have a Junior Feed Day. Another suggestion that was made was to have a class color day. It was decided to have the class color day on the same day as the pep rally.

With no further discussion on this matter a new business was brought forth. This was concerning the class beanies and the class pins. A suggestion that was made at this time was perhaps chenille blocks with the number "46" on it, could also be purchased for the class color day. Recommendations for chairman of these committees were ask for by the president.

Following a short discussion the cabinet approved to have Harumi Morimune as chairman of the pin committee and Richard Sakurai and Miyeko Abe as co-chairmen for the cap committee.

Another business was brought up in regards to how we can raise some money. The two ways that the cabinet suggested were by presenting a movie and by a sno-ko sale. After a careful consideration it was decided by the cabinet to have the sno-ko sale on July 12 under the chairmanship of Benny Masatani with the aid of the Junior Class. The president stated that the movies will have to wait till school is in session again.

Since the cabinet have no authority to go ahead with these various events no action could take place until a general meeting is called. It was settle to have the general meeting the following Monday in the library. Also at this meeting the class color should be selected.

Henry Terao suggested that if all these events were approved by the class, a program sheet for the year be printed in Camp I.

With no further business and discussion the meeting was adjourned by the president.

Respectfully Submitted,

Secretary

General Meeting

June 29, 1944

The meeting was called to order by president Henry Terao in the library at 9:00 p.m. The minutes of the previous meeting stand approved as read by the secretary.

The purpose of this meeting was to get the approval of the various events of the coming junior year by the class. It was stated by the president that even there isn't a quorum everything that is passed would be official because this was an exception.

The calendar was read by the vice-president. He also added that the junior feed day will be planned for in the early part of the school year. Since there was no discussion a vote was taken on this matter. It was passed.

The business of the beanies and pins were brought forth. It was settled that the purchasing of the pins and caps will not be compulsory.

Class colors were brought up at this time. Henry Terao asked the group to submit the colors they would like. They were as follows:

Scarlet and white

Navy and white

Maroon and gold

After a short discussion, a vote was taken in the various colors. The results was the group was in favor of navy and white.

Another business brought up was the sno-ko sale. It was told to the group that Benny Masatani was in charge of the affair and was to take place July 12. At this time the vice-president chose the chairman of the committees needed for the sno-ko sale. They were as follow:

Tad Fujii--Chairman of construction
Miho Takizawa--Chairman of Equipment
Henry Terao--Foreman of the workers

Miyeko Abe asked for suggestions for the class beanies. Some of the suggestion were all white, all navy, and a combination of navy and white.

A discussion on the matter was held and finally it was decided to leave the matter up to the co-chairmen of this committee.

The meeting was adjourned as no further business was brought up.

Respectfully Submitted,

Cabinet Meeting

October 4, 1944

The meeting was called to order by the president during activity period. Minutes of the previous meeting were dispensed with. Before anything took place the president asked the secretary to take the roll of each meeting.

Since there weren't any old business, new business was asked for. It was stated by the president that the class of 46 has not yet have an advisor. Miho Takizawa moved that Mrs. Smith should be our advisor. The motion passed.

To ratify the constitution was the next business brought up. It was said by the vice-president that the ratifying of the constitution shouldn't be necessary for the class of 46 is always the same.

Again under new business it was suggested that we do something for Sumiye Urabe since she had relocated to Denver, Colorado. Some of the suggestions contributed were to give her a gift or a round robin letter. Benny Masatani moved the class send her a letter. This motion was carried. It was decided to have Mrs. Smith take care of it by circulating it during the core class.

At this time Harumi Morimune gave a report on the rings and pins but nothing was actually done.

The president asked the group whether they wanted the cabinet and council meetings separate. A vote was taken and it seemed the group was in favor to have it combined. It was also stated by the president that the duties of the class representative was to bring back the school progress from the student Body Council meeting and if necessary call a class council meeting or report to each core class.

Another business brought forth was in regards to the school paper. Since the second issue was to be publish by the Sophomores and juniors, it was decided to have a joint cabinet meeting in the near future.

With no further business the meeting was adjourned.

Respectfully Submitted,

David Takasegawa
Secretary

Joint Cabinet Meeting With Sophomores

October 12, 1944

The meeting was called to order by vice-president Benny Masatani during activity period in Room 18. The minutes were dispensed with since this was a joint cabinet meeting with the Sophomores.

Main business for the meeting was concerning the paper which is suppose to be publish by the Juniors and Sophomores. The group present had favored to have an election for the staff, so an election was held. Those elected were as follow:

Co-editors: Benny Masatani
Miho Takizawa

News Editor: Tayeko Kitamura

Feature Editor: Doris Sakasegawa

Business Manager: Harumi Morimune

Production Manager: James Sakurai

Assistant Pro. Mgr: Kinto Onitsuka

Quite a lengthy discussion was held in regards to the reporters. It was finally decided to follow a similar plan as the Seniors.

No other business was brought up so the meeting was adjourned.

Council Meeting

November 7, 1944

The meeting was called to order in Room 16 during activity period. Minutes of the previous meeting stand approved as read.

Old business brought up was in regards to the letters to the relocatees. It was decided to send letters to all those who relocated since summer.

A report was given by the president of the last Student Body Council meeting.

A new business brought forth was concerning the constitution. Because the class had elected the present cabinet in the last school year instead of this school year, the article pertaining to the election is incorrect. Since there were few other articles incorrect it was moved and second that a committee be chosen to revise the constitution. This motion was carried. Benny Masatani was recommended for chairman of the committee.

Again under new business a suggestion brought up was the sweaters to be purchase by the class. Since the council has no authority to make definite plans it was laid on the table until the representatives get a report from their respective core classes.

The meeting was adjourned by the president.

Respectfully Submitted,

Secretary

Council Meeting

November 14, 1944

Meeting was called to order by Henry Terao during activity period in the Student Activities Room. Minutes of the previous meeting stand approved as read.

Old business was asked for. The calendar was brought up by Benny Masatani. It was suggested to have a Junior Day add on to the calendar since the class had ordered beanies. The suggestion was put into a motion. The motion passed.

Again under old business the matter of letters were brought forth. A suggestion made was to have the secretary write one letter to each student that relocated instead of sending them a round robin letter as previous decided. This suggestion was made into a motion. The motion was carried.

The matter of sweaters and rings were again brought up. It was said by the core representatives that the classes were in favor of having the student purchase what ever suited the individual. Discussion was held concerning the matter. It was finally decided by the council that a vote will be taken again between the sweaters and rings but this time it has to be definitely either rings or sweaters.

Under new business Harumi Morimune stated the class have to have a budget in by the coming Thursday so a budget should immediately be made. A discussion was held. After careful consideration a budget was made which reads as follow:

Cash on hand.....November 13, 1944.....$9.38

Estimated Income:

2 movies.....	$20.00
Candy Sale.....	10.00

Social--Junior Senior Prom.....	25.00
Farewell Social.....	15.00
	Total Estimated Expense	$55.00
	Remaining Balance	$ 4.38

Toshie Ichikawa asked for suggestions as to how the class representative could bring back the report of the Student Body Council Meetings. Discussion was held regarding the matter. It was decided that the class representative bring back the report to the Junior Council meeting and the core class representatives bring it back to their respective core classes.

The meeting was adjourned by the president.

Respectfully Submitted,

Secretary

Meeting was called to order by the president. The minutes stand approved as read.

Old business brought up was in regards to the sweaters and rings. The results from both core classes were 19 in favor of sweaters and 43 for rings. The votes for rings being the majority the matter was left to Ring Committee Chairman, Harumi Morimune.

As there were no other old business, new business was asked for. Henry Terao stated that the Student Body Council requested each class to elect a student to serve in the Student Body Assembly Committee. In order to save trouble for the class the council immediately elected Miyeko Abe to represent the Junior Class. The secretary was asked by the president to inform the representative about the matter.

A suggestion made was to have a social-chairman. After a thorough discussion it was decided to have the vice-president carry this duty as previously done.

Again under new business a matter concerning dues was brought up. Following a discussion, Benny Masatani moved that a due of twenty-five cents per person be collected each semester. This motion was carried.

The Class representative gave a report on the last Student Body Council Meeting.

Once again under new business the subject of a Christmas

Party was brought forth. Discussion followed. It was moved and second to have the Christmas Party a Junior Class affair since this was the only opportunity. The motion passed. It was decided that the program for the event be consisted of entertainment, games, refreshments, and dancing. Various committee heads were chosen by the group present.

With no further business the meeting was adjourned by Henry Terao.

Council Meeting

January 3, 1945

The meeting was called to order. Minutes of the previous meeting stand approved as read.

With no old business, new business was asked for. The important matter for the meeting was concerning the loss of the Junior teacher and what should be done by the students in order that credit may be received. A lengthy discussion was held. Mr. McLaren gave the group few suggestions as to what could be done.

It was moved and second that the Junior Council be the steering committee. The motion was carried.

Again a motion was made that a project be made by the third Wednesday of January. The motion was passed.

Jimmy Kojima moved that the project be on any subject chose by the individual with the exception of states since the lower class had already made a written report concerning the matter. This motion was also carried.

After a discussion, it was decided to drop the matter of getting the advisory pin for Mrs. Smith since she was no longer the advisor of the Junior Class. Instead the president appointed Chiyoko Sonoda, Tayeko Kitamura, Miho Takizawa, and Harumi Morimine to serve on a committee to get Mrs. Smith a gift.

The organization not having an advisor, suggestions were asked for. Mrs. Robertson was the only suggestion, so the group favored to have her as the advisor. It was left up to the president to see if Mrs. Robertson will be willing to advise the organization.

As the bell had rung, the meeting was adjourned by President Henry Terao.

Miss Sharvy said a few words in regard to her becoming the advisor for the organization.

Under old business the matter concerning the movie was discussed. A motion was carried to have the secretary write to the movie company asking for few information.

With no further old business the meeting was turned over to Benny Masatani. Main subject to be discuss was the Junior-Senior Prom. Reports were made by the chairman of the decoration and refreshments. It was decided to change the date to March 10 instead of the 17th. Chaperones for the evening are to be Mr. & Mrs. Robert Wells and Mrs. & Mr. James Abe.

The following songs were to be voted in the core classes as a theme song. The suggestions were:

- a. Rhapsody in Blue
- b. Moonlight Mood
- c. Serenade in Blue
- d. City Called Heaven
- e. Moonlight Cocktail

The matter of guests was the next main discussion. After a lengthy discussion it was finally decided to vote for the following in the core classes.

1. Strictly Juniors and Seniors
2. A Junior or Senior may bring anyone within the Student Body.

3. A Junior or Senior may bring anyone within the Student Body and the Class of '44.

Teruo Sonoda was asked to request for the 226 "P.A." The secretary was asked to send invitation to the Junior Class Cabinets of Unit I and III.

It was understood by the group present that the affair was to be strictly couples and sports formal.

With no further discussion on the prom the meeting was turned back to Henry Terao.

Meeting was adjourned by the president.

The meeting was called to order by President Henry Terao. Minutes of the previous meeting stand approved as read.

With no old business, new business was called for. The purpose of the meeting was to decide what to do with the money in the treasury. Few of the suggestions given were:

1. Chicken dinner
2. Donation to El Chaparral
3. " " Lettermen's Club
4. Medals to Junior Class Boys Basketball Team
5. Weenie Bake
6. Pay for lost books
7. Pins for the cabinet members

A lengthy discussion followed. Following this, three of the suggestions were eliminated. Those were the chicken dinner, weenie bake, and the donation to the Lettermen's Club.

A motion was then made by Miho Takizawa, seconded and passed to purchase pins for the cabinet members.

Also another motion was made by the secretary, that all boys on the basketball team get medals providing that each player pay half of the actual cost. This, too, was passed.

No action could take place on the above two motions until a budget is made and approved by the core classes.

The matter of the book situation was again taken up. Since the core class secretaries wrote a letter to the Student Body Council and receive no response, the matter was laid on the table.

A suggestion was made by Miss Sharvy <sup>to</sup> ~~the~~ have the Junior

April 9, 1945

Class sponsor an assembly. Discussion was held about the matter. It was finally decided to have the members be thinking of it before any definite plans be made.

The meeting was adjourned by the president as no other business was brought forth.
