The Indianapolis District Office Offers

DOMESTIC JOB OF THE MONTH

With the crying need for domestic help, relocation centers have probably been receiving offers from all relocation offices every day, and many of us feel that an unusual domestic offer is no longer unusual these days. We believe, however, that the offer described below has all the good points of unusual domestic offers combined in one. This is a chance in a hundred, and we are asking that no one apply unless she has intentions of making this her future and not just a stepping stone to get out of the camp.

Mr. and Mrs. Pierre Goodrich, native-born people of Indiana, have a 9-room apartment in Indianapolis in a most exclusive district. All rooms, including the maid's room, are on the first floor. Transportation to and from shopping districts is of the best, and is not more than a 15-minute or a 20-minute ride.

Mr. and Mrs. Goodrich have no children nor pets. They are the most considerate, kind and patient people one can ever hope to meet. Two Japanese American college students have worked for her during the summer, and after knowing her, have preferred working with her to working as clerks and stenographers.

An experienced person will start at $20 per week to do all household duties as well as cooking. There will be no ironing. All big washing goes to the laundry and what little washing there is, is done by the Bendix. Every Sunday and every Thursday will be the days off during the week. Business calls Mr. Goodrich out of town a great deal of the time, and Mrs. Goodrich also takes many trips out of town on weekends--one of the reasons being that she has a home in the country. On these weekends, the employed girl will have all day off on Thursday, and no cooking for the rest of the weekend. She will have only the routine dusting and cleaning to do. Unless the employed person wants to go to the country with Mrs. Goodrich, she will stay at the apartment.

Mrs. Goodrich is not a dictatorial type of person. For this reason, she wishes to consider only experienced individuals who will go ahead and do what should be done. Mrs. Goodrich's last girl stayed with her for 11½ years. The maid in her country home stayed with the Goodrich family for the last 30 years.

Please don't hesitate to write, if only to inquire. Mrs. Goodrich's knowledge of the problems of Japanese Americans and the Japanese folk is one of sincere understanding.

Note: Address inquiries to the War Relocation Authority, 634 Circle Tower Building, Indianapolis 4, Indiana.

The YMCA Hotel at 826 S. Wabash Ave. had several permanent guests in 1943 but from 1944 guests were permitted to stay only a few days due to the large number of reservations. The other YMCA residences are for permanent guests.

The various hotels listed were also used as permanent addresses because of their proximity to places of work. Both the Edgewater Beach Hotel and Stevens Hotel housed employees for some time. The majority have moved out of these two hotels to other hotels and apartments. Superior Hotel is the only hotel not listed in the directory.

The following are the addresses:
