16 OBJECTIONS AND EXCEPTIONS TO AFFIDAVITS OF MERIT
17 FILED BY DEFENDANTS AND MOTION TO STRIKE
18 THE SAME

19 On November 12, 1946, the defendants filed herein the affidavits of John L. Burling, Charles M. Rothstein, Ollie Collins, Joseph J. Shevlin, Lillian C. Scott and Thomas M. Cooley II, including Exhibit A attached to the latter, said affidavits purporting to be affidavits of merit in opposition to plaintiffs' Motion For Summary Judgment and plaintiffs' Motion For Judgment On The Pleadings filed herein on October 14, 1946, and plaintiffs' Motion To Strike filed herein on October 10, 1946, and also purporting to be affidavits in support of defendants' cross-motion for summary judgment; and on December 5, 1946, defendants filed herein in opposition to plaintiffs' said motions for summary judgment, for judgment on the pleadings and to strike and in support of defendants' cross motion for summary judgment the affidavit of Thomas M. Cooley II to which is attached Exhibits A, B and C and miscellaneous

memoranda

The plaintiffs and each of them hereby objects and excepts to the introduction in evidence herein of each phrase, clause, sentence and paragraph of each of defendants' said affidavits of merits, including the exhibits attached thereto, and to the whole of each of said affidavits and exhibits and objects and excepts to any consideration whatever being given thereto by the court on the pending motions and moves to strike the same for each and all of the following reasons and upon each and all of the following grounds, to-wit:

(Specific Objections)

The same is said above.

1. Opinions and conclusions of the affiant;
 2. Hearsay;
 3. A self-serving declaration;
 4. Not part of the res gestae;
 5. Not in issue herein;
 6. Has no bearing on any issue herein;
 7. Too remote to have any bearing on any issue herein;
 8. Not the best evidence;
 9. Is secondary evidence for the introduction of which no foundation has been laid;
 10. Assumes something not in evidence;
 11. Not binding on any petitioner herein;
 12. Negative pregnant;
 13. In conflict with admitted facts;
 14. In conflict with facts of public notoriety of the truth of which the court has and takes judicial cognizance;
 15. In conflict with the contents of pertinent public records; written instruments and official documents;
 16. Attempts to alter or vary the terms of pertinent written instruments, public writing and official communications;

17. Not assertable by affiant who is estopped to assert the same because it is in conflict with facts admitted by the pleadings and with facts of public notoriety, and contrary to pertinent public writings and records and official communications and is an attempt to alter or vary the terms of those writings, records and communications by parole evidence and such are not impeachable by affiant;
 18. Not matter observed or heard by affiant and not matter within his personal knowledge;
 19. Sham;
 20. Evasive;
 21. Conjectural;
 22. Vague;
 23. Indefinite;
 24. Uncertain;
 25. Ambiguous;
 26. Irrelevant;
 27. Redundant;
 28. Immaterial;
 29. Affiant is not qualified to testify as an expert witness on the matter therein contained or to offer an affidavit herein on said matter;
 30. No foundation has been laid for affiant to testify as an expert witness on the matter contained in his affidavit.

(General Opposition)

And that the same is incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial;

(Special Objections to Special Exhibits)

In addition thereto each plaintiff objects and excepts to the introduction in evidence herein and moves to strike each and every word, phrase, clause, sentence, paragraph and page of Exhibit A attached to the affidavit of Thomas M. Cooley II filed herein on November 12, 1946, purporting to be a memorandum of the Japanese Nationality Law as translated by one, Kenzo Takayanagai, and Exhibit B attached thereto and purporting to be a translation of sections of the Nippon Horei Zensho and the Genke Horei Shuran, and also each and every word, phrase, clause, sentence, paragraph and page of Exhibit A attached to the affidavit of Thomas M. Cooley II filed herein on December 5, 1946, and purporting to be the affidavit of one, Thomas L. Blakemore, and Exhibit B attached thereto and purporting to be a memorandum prepared by said Thomas L. Blakemore, and Exhibit C attached thereto and purporting to be a deposition of said Thomas L. Blakemore taken in a proceeding in the District Court of the United States for the Southern District of California, Northern Division, in a matter entitled "In the Matter of the Petition of Fumiko Tamura for a Writ of Habeas Corpus", No. 376-Civil therein, and miscellaneous photostat copies of a printed publication in the Japanese language attached thereto and Exhibit D attached thereto, and the whole of each of said affidavits and exhibits on each and all of the aforesaid reasons and grounds and upon the following additional and special grounds, to-wit:

The sun is red bright

- a. Opinion and conclusion of such affiant;
 - b. Hearsay of such affiant;
 - c. Sham;
 - d. Evasive;
 - e. Conjectural;
 - f. Vague;

- 1 g. Indefinite;

12 either in ability or proficiency to translate from 13 the Japanese language into English;
- 14 q. Said such affiant is not qualified as an expert to 15 testify as to the law or any law of Japan and in 16 particular to the nationality laws of Japan, past
17 or present;
- 18 r. Said document and the declarations and purported 19 translations from Japanese to English therein are 20 self-serving;
- 21 s. The Japanese law, including the Japanese nationality
22 laws, are not in issue herein and have no application
23 to any issue herein;
- 24 t. The law of Japan has no extraterritorial effect and 25 cannot in anywise affect any citizen of the United 26 States or any person residing within the United States;
- 27 u. The nationality law of Japan has no extraterritorial 28 jurisdiction or effect over any citizen of the United 29 States or resident of the United States;
- 30 v. The nationality law of Japan has no application
31 whatever to any citizen of the United States or to 32 any resident of the United States;

- v. The said exhibits pertaining to purported laws of Japan are barred by the provisions of Title 2 USCA, sec. 800, and are inadmissible in evidence;
- x. The said exhibits pertaining to purported laws of Japan are inconsistent with the grant of citizenship by the 14th Amendment and are contrary to the due process clause of the 5th Amendment and to the sovereignty of the United States and are barred from being introduced into evidence by reason thereof.

(General Objection)

And the same is and are incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial.

13 The above and foregoing special and general objections to the 14 introduction of said affidavits and their contents in evidence on 15 the pending motions herein and motions to strike the same are here-
16 by submitted.

Respectfully submitted,

Wayne M. Collins,
1721 Mills Tower,
San Francisco, 4, Calif.
