SELECTIVE SERVICE SYSTEM

Local Board No. 15
Alameda County

May 26, 1942

Camp Director,
Turlock Assembly Center,
Turlock, California.

Dear Sir:

In reference to the registrants, who are filling out their Occupational Questionnaires, we have been advised to inform them that they should place a mark on numeral 8 under item 15, "Inmate of Institution (home for disabled, needy, aged, etc.)" and should enter in item 18 an entry such as "Confined in evacuation camp."

Thanking you,

/s/Ella Jolliff
Assistant Clerk

SELECTIVE SERVICE SYSTEM

Local Board No. 74
Alameda County

920 A Street
Hayward, California

May 29, 1942

The Commanding Officer
Tanforan Assembly Center
San Bruno, Calif.

Dear Sir:

We have been receiving Selective Service Questionnaires from the Japanese registrants, completed but not sworn to on page 4 of the questionnaires which is necessary. This incompleteness necessitates our returning innumerable questionnaires, thereby delaying the processing of same.

Could you announce and/or post a notice on the bulletin boards instructing the recipients of the Selective Service Questionnaires to have you or the proper authority give them the oath and check through the Questionnaires with an eye to completeness.

Thank you for your cooperation with the Selective Service Local Boards.

Respectfully yours,

/s/ B. E. AMYX, Chairman
Local Board No. 74

BEA:LA

The following names are those of Japanese arrested for holding a meeting without authority from Army not having a secretary present to record the proceedings and speaking in Japanese language. Membership in organization follows name, as well as other pertinent information.

June 25 1942

July 3, 1942 Memo to Hoover from Ennis

Refers to above communication.

"I understand that in the future these and similar matters relating to infringements of assembly center regulations are to be treated as matters of internal discipline, except in aggravated cases. In the aggravated cases, alien enemies may be apprehended and handled as such, and citizens subjected to Federal prosecution. There cannot, of course, be any Federal prosecution unless there has been a violation of a regulation properly promulgated by a military authority and duly authorized under Executive Order 9066, dated February 19, 1942.

On May 13, the W.C.C.A. announced the wage scale for workers in the Assembly Centers. The general wage level announced was $8.00 a month for unskilled work, $12.00 a month for skilled work, and $16.00 a month for professional and technical work. Within the camp itself some further regulations were made. No one younger than 16 years of age was allowed to remain on the payroll. Although the W.C.C.A. announced that workers would put in 44 hours a week some people had to work much more while others did not work as long.

The following occupations were listed as unskilled work, although many of these jobs did not exist in the Center: health service attendant, book cleaner, canner, charwoman, cloth cutter, driver, fireman, form setter, gardener, garment presser, helper in construction work, housekeeping aide, janitor, junior clerk, junior typist, laboratory helper, laborer, laundry worker, maid, messenger, nursery helper, nursery school attendant, recreation attendant, school attendant, seamstress, watchman, woodcutter. Of this list only the driver, fireman, janitor, junior clerk and typist, laborer, messenger, nursery school helper and attendant, and recreation attendant were the jobs open in the Center.

Among the occupations listed as skilled were: accounting clerk, acetylene cutter, assembler, assistant teacher (adult education and nursery school), automotive mechanic, baker, barber, beautician, blacksmith, bricklayer, bulldozer operator, butcher, cabinet maker, carpenter, cement finisher, cement gun operator, supervising clerk, cloth cutter, cloth marker, community leader, concrete finishing machine operator, concrete mixer operator, cook, cost and material clerk, designer, draftsman, electrician, engineering recorder, equipment inspector, grade B foreman, garment inspector, garment presser, glazier, graduate nurse, instrument man, junior accountant, laboratory assistant, library assistant, machinist, material inspector, mechanic, motion picture operator, music copyist, music teacher, musician, painter, paper hanger, pattern maker, plasterer, plumber, recreation leader, reporter, research assistant, rodman-chainman, roofer, saw filer, senior clerk, senior typist, sewing-machine repairman, shoe repairer, sign writer, stenographer, steward, stock clerk, storekeeper, telephone operator, teletype operator, timekeeper, tool repairman, tree surgeon, truck driver, welder. Of this list of skilled workers, in Tanforan there were a few accountants, a few teachers, a butcher, carpenters, clerks, cooks, electricians, nurses, library assistant, music teachers, painters, recreation leaders, reporters, senior clerks and typists, stenographers, stock clerks, storekeepers, timekeepers, and some truckdrivers. Most of the occupations listed in the regulations did not exist in the camp.

Among the established occupations listed as professional and technical were: accountant, architect, artist, chief of party, Councilman, dentist, supervising draftsman, editor, engineer, grade A foreman, house manager, librarian, music arranger, music director, nutritionist, pharmacist, physician, registered nurse, secretary, senior music teach, senior recreation leader or recreation director, senior timekeeper, adult education teacher, nursery school teacher, translator, and writer. Most of these professions were represented in Tanforan. The architect, chief of party, and draftsman were the only ones absent.²¹

Thus we can see that there were not too many jobs in Tanforan. The Center consisted largely of urban people and many were skilled or professional workers. For some jobs there are many applicants; other jobs have no comers. When the very low wage scales were announced, many who were working expressed a desire to quit.
