In re: KAMACHO MIYASHIRO

IN DEPORTATION PROCEEDINGS

IN BEHALF OF RESPONDENT: Wayne M. Collins, Esq.
Mills Tower
220 Bush Street
San Francisco, Cal.

CHARGES:

Warrant: Act of 1924 - No immigration visa.
Act of 1918 - No passport.
Act of 1924 - Ineligible to citizenship.

Lodged: None.

APPLICATION: Suspension of Deportation and Voluntary Departure.

DETENTION STATUS: Released on conditional parole.

DISCUSSION: The record relates to a 43-year old male, a native and citizen of Japan, whose only entry into the United States occurred at the Port of San Francisco, Cal., on June 15, 1942, at which time he was brought to this country by the Army from South America for internment during World War II. Respondent had migrated from Japan to Peru in 1925, at which time he was admitted for permanent residence. At the time of his entry on June 15, 1943, he was ^{not} inspected and admitted to the United States for ^{any} purpose and was not in possession of an immigration visa or a passport or other official document in the nature thereof showing his origin and identity. No evidence was developed that the respondent comes within any of the exceptions to Section 3, of the Act of May 26, 1924, and therefore he must be considered to have been an immigrant at the time of his entry. No evidence was developed that the respondent comes within the exceptions stated in paragraph (c) of Section 13 of the Immigration Act of 1924. He is, therefore, deportable on the grounds stated in the warrant of arrest.

On October 5, 1950, the Board of Immigration Appeals ordered that the hearing in this case be reopened for the reception of such application for relief from deportation as may be made and for further appropriate proceedings in connection therewith. As ordered, the hearing was reopened on January 26, 1952, at which time the respondent applied for suspension of deportation and, in the alternative, voluntary departure in lieu of deportation. He is single and has no close family ties in the United States. His mother lives in Japan and his father in Peru. The record shows that the respondent was a legal resident of Peru from August 4, 1925, until he was brought to this country in 1943. He has been employed by the Seabrook Farms Company, Bridgeton, N. J., since August 21, 1946. His assets consist of $2,000.00 in cash. Records of employment, affidavits of witnesses and a report of investigation show conclusively that the respondent has resided in the United States in excess of seven years and was so residing on July 1, 1948. They also show that he has been a person of good moral character for the past five years. A check of the local and federal records has failed to reveal an arrest or criminal record. He has technically established that he has met the residence requirements for suspension of deportation under Section 19(c)(2)(b) of the Immigration Act of 1917. In similar cases, it has been held that an alien who had been brought into the United States solely for reasons connected with the war was denied the discretionary relief of suspension of deportation as a matter of policy, Matter of W....., Decision 225, decided by the Board of Immigration Appeals May 31, 1950.

The respondent, in the event of deportation, desires to return to Peru, the country whence he came. He has no desire to return to Japan and there appears to be no assurance that Peru will accept him if granted voluntary departure in lieu of deportation. Therefore, the facts and circumstances in this case do not warrant the granting of any discretionary relief.

FINDINGS OF FACT: Upon the basis of all the evidence presented, it is found:

- (1) That the respondent is an alien, a native and citizen of Japan;
- (2) That the respondent last entered the United States without inspection, at the Port of San Francisco, Cal., on June 15, 1943;
- (3) That the respondent was brought into the United States by the Army from South America for internment during World War II;
- (4) That the respondent was not in possession of a valid immigration visa;
- (5) That the respondent did not present a passport or other official document in the nature of a passport showing his origin and identity at the time of his last entry;
- (6) That the respondent is of the Japanese race.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW: Upon the basis of the foregoing findings of fact, it is concluded:

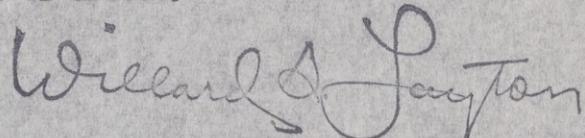

- (1) That under Sections 13 and 14 of the Immigration Act of May 26, 1924, the respondent is subject to deportation on the ground that, at the time of entry, he was an immigrant not in possession of a valid immigration visa and not exempted from the presentation thereof by said Act or regulations made thereunder;
- (2) That under Section 19 of the Act of February 5, 1917, the respondent is subject to deportation on the ground that he entered the United States in violation of the Passport Act approved May 22, 1918, as amended, in that, at the time of entry, he did not present an unexpired passport or official document in the nature of a passport issued by the government of the country to which he owes allegiance, or other travel document showing his origin and identity, as required by Executive Order in effect at the time of entry.

- (3) That under Sections 13 and 14 of the Immigration Act of May 26, 1924, the respondent is subject to deportation on the ground that he is an alien ineligible to citizenship and was not entitled to enter the United States under any exception of Paragraph (c), Section 13 thereof.

DECISION: IT IS ORDERED that the alien's application for suspension of deportation and voluntary departure in lieu of deportation be denied.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED THAT the alien be deported from the United States pursuant to law on the grounds stated in the warrant of arrest.

Very truly yours,

1 this country. It is time that the government ceased using the
2 Immigration authorities and the pretext of the immigration laws
3 as an excuse to mask the cruel persecution of the applicant and
4 like Peruvian-Japanese for what is nothing but the wrongdoing
5 of the governments of Peru and the United States.

IN BEHALF OF RESPONDENT: Wayne H. Collins, Esquire

CHARGES: Act of 1924 - No immigration visa
Warrant: Act of 1918 - No Passport
Act of 1924 - Ineligible to citizenship

Lodged: None

APPLICATION: Suspension of deportation and voluntary departure

DISCUSSION: Upon consideration of the entire record, including the exceptions taken, the findings relating to deportability made by the officer conducting the hearing are hereby adopted.

The alien has established his eligibility for voluntary departure and that relief is the maximum which will be granted to him as a matter of administrative discretion. To insure compliance with the grant of this privilege, deportation will be directed to follow in the event the alien fails to avail himself promptly of the grant of voluntary departure.

ORDER: It is ordered that the alien be required to depart from the United States without expense to the Government, within such period of time (not less than 30 days) and under such conditions as the Officer in Charge of the District deems appropriate.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that if the alien fails to depart when and as required, the privilege of voluntary departure shall be withdrawn without further notice or proceedings and the alien deported from the United States, pursuant to law on the charge

THE FOREIGN SERVICE OF THE
UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

Address Official Communications to

American Embassy
Lima, May 29, 1952

Mr. Wayne M. Collins, Attorney at Law,
Mills Tower, 220 Bush Street
San Francisco 4, California.

Dear Mr. Collins:

I wish to acknowledge receipt of your letter of May 19, 1952 referring once more to the return to Peru of a number of Peruvian-Japanese who were deported to the United States in 1943 and 1944.

Correspondence continues between this Embassy and the Peruvian Ministry of Foreign Affairs on the subject, but there has so far been no official change in the Peruvian position. When the matter was taken up orally with the Foreign Ministry this week, however, there was some indication that it intended to restudy the problem and to formulate a set of conditions under which certain Peruvian-Japanese would be enabled to obtain an entry permit. That indicates possible progress towards a solution of the problem.

Please be assured that the Embassy will continue to devote attention to this matter and will bear in mind the information contained in your letter.

Sincerely yours,

/s/ Harold H. Tittmann

1 have abused. The original of said letter has been forwarded to
2 the Commissioner of Immigration for examination.

3 The appellant was brought to this country and interned on 4 June 15, 1943, under an asserted claim that he was subject to 5 the provisions of the Alien Enemy Act. On August 16, 1946, he 6 was released from the Provisions of the Alien Enemy Act and his
7 detention under authority of the Act thereupon ceased. Of these 8 facts the Commissioner, this Board and the Attorney General have 9 actual knowledge and take executive notice.

10 We submit that the finding and conclusion that the alien
11 cannot meet the residence requirements for suspension of deporta-
12 tion under Title 8 USCA, Sec. 155 (c), is contrary to law, to 13 fact and to the evidence.

14 The seven (7) year period of residence required by Title 8
15 USCA, Sec. 155 (c) for suspension of deportation is satisfied by 16 the elapse of time from June 15, 1943, when applicant arrived
17 here or is, at least, partially satisfied by the elapse of time
18 from August 16, 1946, when he was released from internment and 19 from any claim of being subject to the provisions of the Alien
20 Enemy Act.

21 We submit that there is no evidence in the record that the 22 alien was brought to this country for any legitimate war connected
23 reason. We contend that the government is estopped to deny that 24 his entry was lawful and likewise is estopped to assert that his 25 presence in this country is unlawful. It is nonsense for the 26 government to assert that he did not present an unexpired passport
27 or other travel document at the time of entry and that he was not 28 in possession of a valid immigration visa. The secret orders of 29 the Peruvian government which authorized this cruel uprooting of 30 the appellant and similarly situated Peruvian-Japanese constitute 31 a blanket visa to the appellant and those other Peruvian-Japanese
32 who forcibly were brought to this country. The concealed orders

1 of the U.S. Government, under which he and they were banished
2 from Peru and transported to the U.S., constitute blanket
3 admission credentials.

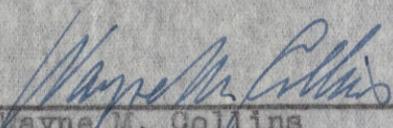

4 We submit that the appellant was brought involuntarily to 5 this country for political reasons only. Because he is, in fact,
6 an involuntary refugee from Peru, he is entitled to asylum in
7 this country.

8 Our ambassador to Peru and our State Department still are 9 trying to prevail upon the Peruvian authorities to re-admit the 10 appellant and similarly situated members of the Peruvian-Japanese
11 group here to Peru. So long as those negotiations are pending
12 we suggest that no order of deportation should issue against him.

13 For the foregoing reasons we urge that the finding of 14 deportability be set aside and that the alien's application for 15 suspension of deportation be granted.

16 June 5, 1952.

17 Respectfully submitted,

KAMACHO MIYASHIRO

IN BEHALF OF RESPONDENT: Wayne M. Collins, Esquire
1701 Mills Tower
San Francisco 4, California

CHARGES:

Warrant: Act of 1924 - No immigration visa
Act of 1918 - No passport
Act of 1924 - Ineligible to citizenship

Lodged: None

APPLICATION: Suspension of deportation - seven years residence

DETENTION STATUS: Released on conditional parole

DISCUSSION AS TO DEPORTABILITY: Respondent is 45 years of age, male, a native and citizen of Japan, of the Japanese race. His only entry into the United States occurred at San Francisco, Calif., on June 15, 1942, at which time he was brought to this country from Peru, with a group of other persons similarly situated, by the United States Army for internment during World War II.

Prior to amendment by the Act of July 1, 1948 (Pub. Law 863, 80th Cong.) a person of the Japanese race was not eligible for suspension of deportation, because he was racially ineligible for naturalization in the United States. By that Act an alien who was ineligible for naturalization solely by reason of his race became eligible for suspension of deportation. Further, the Immigration and Nationality Act of 1952 (Pub. Law 414, 82d Cong.), Section 311, provides that the right of a person to become a naturalized citizen of the United States shall not be denied or abridged because of race. Therefore, respondent is no longer deportable as a person ineligible to citizenship, and the third warrant charge is inapplicable. He is deportable on the documentary grounds only.

DISCUSSION AS TO ELIGIBILITY FOR SUSPENSION OF DEPORTATION: Respondent has applied for the privilege of suspension of deportation on the ground that he has been in the United States for seven years and was resident in the United States on July 1, 1948. He has been found technically eligible for suspension on this ground. Respondent is single and has no close family ties in the United States. His mother lives in Japan, and his father lives in Peru. He migrated from Japan to Peru in 1925 and lived in that country until he was brought to the United States.

After he was permitted to leave the internment camps in which he was detained, respondent worked at the Seabrook Farms Company, Bridgeton, New Jersey. At the time of his hearing in 1952 he testified that he had $2000 in cash. The Hearing Officer found that respondent had been a person of good moral character for the past five years, and that he had no arrest or criminal record.

It was long the policy of this Department to deny suspension of deportation to aliens brought into the United States solely for reasons connected with the war. Many of these persons, after a period of internment, were permitted to depart from the detention centers, and proceedings against them as alien enemies were terminated after favorable findings were made by the Alien Enemy Division of the Department of Justice. They were permitted to obtain employment, and they lived and worked in the United States, subject to the usual restrictions on parolees. After the termination of World War II some of these persons desired to remain in the United States and applied for suspension of deportation. This relief was denied them as a matter of policy. However, in Matter of W, Int. Dec. 225 (BIA, May 31, 1950, A. G. May 6, 1952) the Acting Attorney General reviewed the policy and concluded that, in that case at least, deportation of the subject alien would bring about undue hardship. Accordingly, he reversed this Board and ordered the grant of suspension of deportation to E. W., the alien involved in that proceeding. On the authority of that case it has become possible for this Board now to grant suspension of deportation to the Peruvian Japanese in the group of cases now before us. We are informed that the Government of Peru has continued to decline to permit respondent and other persons similarly situated to reenter that country. They cannot remain in the United States permanently as illegally resident aliens. Having left Japan many years ago, none of them desires to return to that country.

The most equitable solution to this problem within the power of this Government is to permit respondent to remain in the United States by granting him suspension of deportation.

It is our opinion that because respondent has been in the United States for seven years and was residing in this country on July 1, 1948, and because he has an otherwise good record, and because he is unable to return to the country from whence he was brought for internment, respondent should be granted suspension of deportation.

ORDER: It is ordered that deportation of the alien be suspended under the provisions of Section 19(c)(2) of the Immigration Act of 1917, as amended.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the order entered by the Acting Assistant Commissioner on May 16, 1952 be and the same is hereby withdrawn.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that if during the session of the Congress at which this case is reported, or prior to the close of the session of the Congress next following the session at which this case is reported, the Congress passes a concurrent resolution stating in substance that it favors the suspension of such deportation, the proceedings be canceled upon the payment of the required fee and that the alien be charged to the quota of Japan.

Dear Mr. Miyashiro:

Congress has approved a suspension of deportation for you and has granted you permanent residence in the United States.

You must, therefore, pay to the U.S. Immigration Service a fee of $18.00 to create a record of this. You should make that payment promptly as possible.

When you have paid that fee please notify me. After that has been paid you will be eligible to apply for naturalization, that is, to become a U.S. citizen.

When you have become a U.S. citizen, it is likely that you'll be able to visit Peru if you so wish simply by obtaining a U.S. passport from an office of the U.S. State Department and a visa from the Peruvian Consulate.
