Magee interested in leasing property for 1943 season or until such time as the avacuee is permitted to return to the property, for $200 per season, payable $10.00 per month, and balance on or about Nov. 30. Wells and motor and pumps are not in working condition, prospective tenant will have no time to work on them, and ~~could~~ Ass'n could not advance funds, security not adequate ... Is WRA willing to advance necessary funds to repair well?

Memo from Project Director to R.T. Robinson, April 28 1943,

Enclosing WRA-153 authorizing WRA to act in behalf of Hachihei Tsuda.

Tsuda states that the lessee ( W.T. Magee) had failed to live up to the provisions of the said lease, and therefore desires to evict Magee in order that E.T, Thomas of the Elk Grove Nat. F. Loan Ass'n, Calif. Fruit Building, Sacto. may find a new tenant

Memo to files Tsuda Case, May 6 1943: by W.L. Phelps:

Mr. Magee agreed to and has moved from the ranch and Mr. Thomas executed a new lease with Mr. Eckley who works with the U.S. Machinery Co. ~~Mr. Eckley who works with the U.S. Machinery Co.~~ Mr. Eckley has placed his stepfather Mr. Stempf on the property to care for it and to clean it up and repair the pumps on the ranch. This case is closed.

UYEMURA , HAJIME FRANK

Letter to Russell T. Robinson, from René Miyake, Apr. 27, 1943: "Mr. Uyemura a resident of this Relocation Center, has asked this office to investigate a certain lease entered into prior to evacuation from Florin, Calif. The agreement was between Mr. Uyemura and Barrie G. Clarke. Mr. Uyemura's property is located one-quarter mi. E on Florin-Elk Grove Road, Florin. This ranch has 75 Ac. with 55 Ac. or more of tokay grapes. Prior to evacuation Mr. Uyemura entered into a shipping agreement with the Nash DeCamp Fruit Co. In accordance with this agreement the crop was sold and delivered to the Nash DeCamp Fruit Co. After the pruning and plowing was done, this evacuee was asked to evacuate from that area and the Nash DeCamp Fruit Co. obtained a tenant for the ranch. The tenant was Barrie G. Clarke, who was placed on the property under the supervision of the Nash DeCamp Fruit Co. Under the terms of the agreement when the lessee took over, the budget agreement originally entered into between Mr. Uyemura and the Nash DeCamp was also included. The Nash DeCamp was to continue its operation with this new lessee under a new budget. Mr. Uyemura, the lessor, was not to be held responsible for the new tenant and was to be released from all responsibility in all matter arising from the agreement between the Nash DeCamp Fruit Co and the Lessee. At the close of the season it appeared that the Nash DeCamp suffered a loss through its operations under the new tenant. The Nash DeCamp did not pay the amount due in accordance with the lease agreement. However, they applied the Lessor's share to the Lessee's losses. The Nash DeCamp held the Lessor responsible for all the losses suffered ~~when~~ in connection with the operation of the ranch. When the original cropping agreement was signed, it constituted a crop mortgage. This was never released by the Nash DeCamp in spite of the fact that the Lessor was not to be held responsible. Budget agreement between Barrie G. Clarke and the Nash DeCamp is as follows: Total advances were $2,017. 70% plus interest to be paid by Barrie Clarke, 30% to be paid by H. Uyemura. The Nash DeCamp sent Uyemura a statement dated Nov. 30, 1942 a credit balance of $431.31. This balance according to Mr. Uyemura is entirely out of proportion to the normal income from this particular ranch. He states that there should be at least $10,000. gross off of the ranch in 1942. Mr. Uyemura would like to have his profit as set forth in his lease agreement. He also feels that his ranch brought more than the statements disclose."

Memo to Paul A. Taylor, Jerome, from Wayne L. Phelps, June 8, 1943: "We contacted the Nash DeCamp Co and they stated that they had not obtained the tenant, Barrie Clarke, as indicated in your letter. Also, there was no change under the agreement or crop mortgage that Mr. Uyemura had with the Nash DeCamp Co. The crop mortgage and marketing agreement was made Feb. 13, 1942 and recorded Apr. 23, 1942. The second crop mortgage was made Jan. 9, 1942 and recorded Jan. 24, 1942. Both mortgages were between the Nash DeCamp Co. and Mr. Uyemura. The property belonged to Mr. Uyemura and he secured the tenant and was not released from all responsibility, as far as the crop mortgage and marketing agreement is concerned. They did what they could as far as supervision and help was concerned. They wrote two letters to Mr. Uyemura, one on Dec. 11, the other on Dec. 11, 1942. In those letters they explained why there was not a bigger crop on the ranch after they left. It may be possible that there should have been a $10,000. gross income from the ranch under normal conditions and if Mr. Uyemura himself were farming the prop. For your information, we have had considerable experience in work in the Florin area the past year, and the whole area suffered a considerable loss, insofar as production is concerned. The operators in that area had to use inexperienced and green help--and there was a shortage of even that type of help."

UYEMURA, HAJIME FRANK

Memo to the Files, June 17, 1943: "It was Mr. Uyemura's impression that the Nash DeCamp Co. was responsible for Mr. Clarke's operating budget on Mr. Uyemura's ranch. I met Mr. Schnell of Nash DeCamp and with him went to see Mr. Carl Rodegerdts, who holds the mortgage on this property. It appears the problem is one which will involve a suit against Mr. Clarke. At the time of evacuation, the evacuee secured Mr. Clarke in whom he had great confidence, to operate his ranch for him. He had a crop mortgage on his vineyard, held by Nash DeCamp Co. and the latter was to finance the operations for Mr. Clarke under a budget plan. Mr. Clarke failed to work the property and Mr. Uyemura was faced with the problem of keeping the ranch operating. Inasmuch as the Nash DeCamp Co. had the power of Atty. for him on this prop., they felt it was their duty to continue their operations and did so throughout the entire season. The operation was a loss, but the prop was cared for. Under the crop mortgage, it appears that Mr. Uyemura would be responsible for the loss; however, rather than Uyemura being responsible, due to the fact that the property was leased by Barrie Clarke, Mr. Rodegerdts, who is the City Atty. of Woodland, felt that there was just cause for Mr. Uyemura to sue Barrie Clarke, as he abandoned the property, and the Nash DeCamp Co. feel that they have just cause for a suit, also. It was suggested by Mr. Rodegerdts that perhaps Mr. Uyemura could assign his interest to the Nash DeCamp Co. and they could file suit to collect for both themselves and Mr. Uyemura."
