thirty pounds heavier than when he was released from Stalag No. 7.

He also received the unit presidential citation ribbon with three battle stars; the American defense ribbon and the good conduct medal.

WINNER OF BRONZE STAR AND GERMAN PRISONER
VISITS FAMILY IN UNIT

Pfc. Jou Okitsu, formerly of Brawley, Calif., arrived here Monday night, June 11, and is presently staying with his father, Eikichi Okitsu, 54-1-C.

He was returned to military control April 29 after having been a prisoner of war of the Germans, according to the War Department.

Pfc. Okitsu is a graduate of Brawley High School in 1937. He was called to the army March 18, 1941. He was placed on the enlisted reserve corps February 12, 1942. He was called back into service from Poston August 9, 1943, and trained at Fort Douglas and Camp Shelby, going overseas with the 442nd May 1, 1944. He was shot through the shoulder in Italy July 4, 1944, and was back on duty in about two weeks.

The bronze star was awarded him in Italy for bravery in action, and the citation brought to him in the front lines.

He was reported missing in action in France October 19, 1944, and was later reported as winning this bronze star.

He was captured by the Germans on October 19, 1944, and imprisoned in Stalag #7 until liberated April 29, 1945. He was flown from prison camp to Le Havre, France, and thence to the United States where he arrived June 5, where he now is on a sixty-day furlough.

He lost 30 pounds while in prison, and gained most of it back since liberation. Imprisonment was not a pleasant experience and food was bad and scarce, but he was not too ill-treated, he stated.
