Title: Canfield-Starbuck law firm paper
 Dates of creation: 1866-1935
 Extent of the unit of description: 6 linear feet in 6 record storage boxes

Scope & Content / Abstract:

The Canfield-Starbuck law firm papers contain a selection of client legal documents from the late 19th to early 20th century Central California Coastal region.

Context:

Name of Creator: Canfield-Starbuck Law Firm
 Administrative / Biographical history: Robert B. Canfield, a New Jersey native, came to Santa Barbara in 1876 and is known for establishing the first gas mains under parts of State Street and developing the first gas lighting system in the city. Mr. Canfield was also an attorney, organized the first local Bar Association, served as a City Judge, was president of the Mission Water Company, and was president of First National Bank for 23 years, from 1895 to 1918. He married Miss Davidson in 1873.

Henry Pease Starbuck was a prominent attorney in Santa Barbara. In 1904 he became a partner of the Canfield & Starbuck law firm located in the Howard-Canfield building on the corner of State and East Canon Perdido Streets. In 1907, Starbuck became the first property owner in Junipero Place (now Junipero Plaza) when he purchased the lot where this voluminous Craftsman house now resides from Edward F.R. Vail.

Custodial history: Collection was received around the 1991-1992 time period, per Kathleen Brewster. An accession record from the initial gift has not yet been found. Although donor's name and donation date are yet to be determined, Kathleen Brewster, who arranged the collection, suggested that former board members Gene Harris, or Francis Price, Jr., both attorneys, may have facilitated the donation of these papers.

The six record storage boxes were arranged by Kathleen Brewster into folders by client name and generally in chronological order, and include hand-written lists of box contents.

Structure:

System of Arrangement: This collection is organized in 4 series:
 Series 1. Legal Documents, 1860-1931
 Series 2. Correspondence, 1915
 Series 3. Estate Documents, 1900-1935
 Series 4. Miscellaneous Documents, 1898-1928
