by Anne Rudin

UC Davis Medical School Clinical Professor of Psychiatry

In 1970, Edward Rudin was appointed to the volunteer faculty of the UC Davis Medical School.

Beginning with Assistant Clinical Professor, he advanced to Associate Clinical Professor and finally to full Professor. He served in that position until his death in 2003.

In 1990 Dr. Rudin was named Levitt Memorial Lecturer in the department of Psychiatry of the UCD School of Medicine.

In 1996 he was a recipient of the Department of Psychiatry’s Distinguished Service Award in recognition of his support of that department’s training programs over the years.

The courses he taught, as a Clinical Professor of Psychiatry, were Ethics in Psychiatry and Teaching Ethical Issues in Psychiatric Practice Through Literature. The students were residents in Psychiatry at the post graduate level. Included in this collection are the syllabi he wrote for those courses, for which he registered a copyright. Listed are the specific topics covered with modifications from year to year and class to class.

Sacramento Area Physicians for Social Responsibility

Edward Rudin was a founding member in 1980 of Sacramento Area Physicians for Social Responsibility (SAPSR), along with Drs. Neil Flynn, Ray Adelman, Richard Reinertson, Robert Meagher, Bill Kohl, Fred Pratt and others. He served as its president from 1985 to 1987 and again in 1992-93. As a board member, he gave speeches to community groups and arranged programs for the community to convey the message of the dangers of nuclear arms buildup and the health consequences of nuclear war.

In 1985 he accompanied his wife, Sacramento Mayor Anne Rudin, to peace conferences in Hiroshima and Nagasaki, representing SAPSR.

In 1990 he was given National PSR's prestigious Broad Street Pump Award "for outstanding contributions to the effort to prevent the last epidemic".

PSR is the local affiliate of International Physicians for the Prevention of Nuclear War (IPPNW) which was awarded the Nobel Peace Prize for 1985.

All of the following titles are Dr. Rudin's own writings. Co-authors are acknowledged where appropriate.
