Volume Ninteen...Lady Brassey Collection...Correction

The floating drydock shown in photograph No. 17 is the "Bermuda," the largest floating drydock in the world when it was built at North Woolich, England in 1868. It was towed across the Atlantic to Bermuda, to Ireland Island, in thirty-five days by H.M.S. Warrior and Black Prince. It is 381' long by 123 feet wide.

Numbers 17-20-21-22-23-24-25-26-27-28-29 are NOT Hamilton Harbor as noted but are Ireland Island.
