

Amateur photographs taken during voyage

These photographs include several categories among which are views of headlands taken from the sea; small harbors; seacoast fortifications,; The yacht SUNBEAM at anchor; family groups and assembled crew views; mountainous scenery; smoking volcanoes from the sea; seacoast caves; views of clouds; volcanic craters; unidentified three-mast wooden barque; Greek or Roman ruins; Italian peasants; North African city or street views; North African men and women; Ferns and palms, parks, interior views of mosques; and portraits of Brassey friends. Each of this collection of 222 photographs are unidentified. Many of them are duplicate prints printed from the same negative but on different photographic papers.