Historic Property Survey Report for the Proposed Seismic Retrofit of the Interstate 880 “Fifth Avenue Overhead” in Oakland, California. October 2000. [Very important for San Francisco Bay Area freeway history. SFPL might want to keep, even though this is in Oakland-BK]

[Two outside of San Francisco reports. One interesting, I think (DeWitt Center, Auburn), and the other less so, I think (Easter Hill, Richmond)-BK]

Historic Architectural Survey Report for DeWitt Center, Auburn, California, 2002. [This is important World War II history. Worth Saving. Not San Francisco related though. You might want to send to a Placer County library or archives-BK]

Easter Hill Housing project, Richmond, California. HABS report by William Kostura, Ward Hill, Denise Bradley, Marjorie Dobkin. [This report is also at the Library of Congress. This housing project in Richmond was somewhat highly regarded for its modernist architecture. The HABS report was written to an unwieldy format and is hard to read. Not of much interest re: San Francisco history. OK to make available or send to a Contra Costa County library.--BK] [in a Priority Mail box with a large envelope of photos]
