Scope and Content: Betty Maffei was the first executive director of CCCHS and served in that capacity for about 30 years. As executive director, she visited elementary, junior high, and high schools to share Contra Costa County history with them. This collection includes correspondence and cards of appreciation from students, correspondence and certificates from other historical societies and from county and state agencies, framed certificates, and a photo album of a fundraiser trip for the History Center. Many of the personal items are undated; the dated items range from 1985 to 2009.
