Abstract

The Donna Ethington Collection contains materials related to Ethington's role as editor of the Wilmington Community News (2001-2004), and her participation as a member of the Port of Los Angeles Community Advisory Committee. The collection is arranged into two series, Wilmington Community News, 1994-2002, and Port of Los Angeles Community Advisory Committee, 2003-2011.

Biographical History

Donna Jeanne Williams was born on November 30, 1946, in Los Angeles County, California to parents, Donald A. and Millicent E. Williams (née Hall). She married John M. Ethington on November 16, 1969, in Orange, California, and divorced in 1984. Donna established the non-profit Pacific Unicomm Corporation in May 2000. In 2001, Pacific Unicomm began publishing the Wilmington Community News, which ceased publication in 2004.

The Port Community Advisory Committee (PCAC) was established in 2001 by then Los Angeles Mayor James Hahn. The PCAC functioned as a standing committee of the Port of Los Angeles

Board of Harbor Commissioners. The purpose of the PCAC was to assess the impacts of Port developments on the harbor area communities, recommend suitable mitigation measures in relationship to surrounding cities, review environmental documents in an open public forum and make recommendations to the Board to ensure that impacts to the communities were appropriately mitigated in accordance with federal and California law.

Donna Ethington served as a member of the PCAC Wilmington Waterfront Development Subcommittee which was established to provide input into the various development projects proposed along the Wilmington Waterfront, including the Wilmington Waterfront Development Project.

Scope and Contents

The Donna Ethington Collection contains materials related to Ethington's role as editor of the Wilmington Community News (2001-2004), and her participation as a member of the Port of Los Angeles Community Advisory Committee (PCAC). The collection is arranged into two Series. Series I, Wilmington Community News (1994-2002) and Series II, Port of Los Angeles Community Advisory Committee (2003-2011).

Series I, Wilmington Community News, consists of photographic prints and negatives for potential publication in the Wilmington Community News. These images document the activities of community organizations, local politics and infrastructure projects, community events, educational institutions and occupational centers, and important issues and concerns of residents. Selected images are available digitally. This series also includes ten print issues of the Wilmington Community News, which are available via the California Digital Newspaper Collection. Series I is arranged in chronological order.

Series II, Port of Los Angeles Community Advisory Committee, contains official documents related to impacts of Port developments on the harbor area communities of Wilmington, Harbor City, and San Pedro. This series is arranged alphabetically by title and chronologically within.
