Mr. William P. Rich,
Marysville, Calif.

My dear Mr. Rich,

The Pasadena Chapter of the Pacific Coast Committee on American Principles and Fair Play calls to your attention the fact that the reasons for the establishment of a Senate Fact-Finding Committee on Japanese

Resettlement as authorized by Senate Resolution No. 122 are unsound and contrary to the American principles of equal rights, privileges, and responsibilities for all, regardless of race, creed or national origin.

The formation of this Fact-Finding Committee was believed necessary because "Japanese people resident in the State of California have proved to be a serious menace to the peace and safety of the people of the state and of the United States as a whole..." This was not used in letters sent in 47.
~~The Committee on American Principles and Fair Play denies this statement.~~ The following quotation from the report of Herman P. Eberharter of the Dies Committee shows the inaccuracy of this statement. "It is worthy of note that of all the evacuees who have been released on both seasonal and indefinite leave by the War Relocation Authority, numbering more than 16,000, no report of disloyal or subversive activity has been made to the Authority or to this subcommittee. Moreover, among the Japanese-American population numbering 290,000 in the continental United States and Hawaii, only 32 per cent of whom are in relocation centers, there have been no established cases of sabotage while there are thousands of cases of loyal workers in industry, agriculture, and in the armed forces of the United States."

The Committee on American Principles and Fair Play also holds that restrictive legislation concerning the return of the Japanese to the West Coast after the termination of the war is contrary to the Constitution of the United States, because it is aimed at a racial minority.

This un-American type of legislation will certainly lead to reprisals by the militarists of Japan against American prisoners of war and American citizens held by the Japanese.

Finally, racial discrimination in the United States gives weight to the enemy's argument that the United Nations are waging a race war, and it is used in propaganda directed at all peoples of the Pacific Area whose collaboration with the United Nations can help immeasurably toward the winning of the war.

Yours truly,

Dear Mr. Tenney-

The Pasadena Chapter of the Pacific Coast Committee on American Principles and Fair Play calls to your attention the fact that the reasons for the establishment of a Senate Fact-Finding Committee on Japanese

Dear Mrs. Farquharson:

I have notified Mr. Scott according to your suggestion in your letter of September 24, regarding Mrs. Siegley's salary, and I don't expect any further delay. I believe she will receive $50.00 for the month of September.

Mrs. Kingman arrives in Berkeley, if everything goes according to schedule, on October 24, and I am sure she would be delighted if Mrs. Siegley could visit here after that date. I am sure a great deal could be accomplished.

The immediate work for the Seattle branch will consist of establishing an Executive Committee, an Advisory Board, and soliciting memberships. I would appreciate it very much if you would let me know of such names as they are added to the roster. Dean Robert O'Brien has a packet of membership cards, that would probably allow you to get a start.

Mr. Fisher suggested that if you could keep a line on any state legislation on committee hearings that would be relevant to the work of the Committee, it would be very helpful to have that information both in your Branch, and in this office here.

Please feel free to call on me for further information or material.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Peattie:

The Committee here is working on the possibilities of having one or two of our local Advisory Board members, or Executive Board members, act as a speaker for a large meeting in Santa Barbara.

Mrs. Kingman is, at present, in Washington, however plans are going ahead for supplying a speaker, probably Mr. Fisher, or Mr. Lundberg, or possibly both. Both are out of town now, but we will let you know as soon as anything definite is set.

Dear Mrs. Kingman:

Under separate cover we have already sent you 150 copies of a brief multilith statement on segregation intended as a supplement to the pamphlet "Relocation of Japanese Americans." The supplement is the same page size as the original document and can be easily inserted among the blank pages at the end. Or, if you prefer, it can be sent along simply as an accompanying document whenever you are filling requests for the pamphlet.

Dear Mr. Baker:

We are in receipt of the brief statement on segregation, and shall use it as a supplement to the pamphlet "Relocation of Japanese Americans". However, the number of segregation statements far exceeds the number of pamphlets we have in our possession, so would it be possible to obtain about 100 copies of the pamphlet?

Thank you very much for the statements.

Dear Dr. Fisher:

Enclosed is a check for $15.00 from the Church to be used for the Air-Play Committee. Somehow, I have misplaced your letter and do not know the treasurer's name. I saw your brother, Dr. Miles, at a meeting and he said you would see the treasurer for me.

I have enjoyed your articles in the Christian Century and am helping wherever I can to spread the facts you wrote in it. It is surprising the number of people one meets (church people, too!) who still repeat the falsehoods regarding fifth-column activity of the Japanese in Hawaii and California. One of my particular peeves is to see these broken-down jalopies with windshield stickers reading "No Japs in California". I wonder ~~who~~ finances the printing and distribution of these stickers.

Thanks again for your efforts in behalf of these, our brethren, and with kindest personal greetings,

Sincerely,

Alfred F. Schroeder

Dear Galen:

Do excuse this paper and my bad typing—the former because it is all that I have other than my cherished letter heads of the F.P.Com ittee, the latter because I don't like to ask the WRA secretary to type these letters to the 'family' so to speak.

I received your letter yesterday, just before going into a two hour conference with Mr. Myer. It came at a most auspicious time, as I was able to get an answer to most of your questions, and opinions on others.

1) According to Mr. Myer's interpretation, the project directors have no little discretionary powers in decisions relating to assignments to Tule Lake. There is, according to him, no "freeze" of Kibei who were in Japan over 10 years, or who returned after 1925. Those persons automatically fall in Group III, i.e., those who are given hearings before going to Tule. He told me that there have been only a negligible number of such Kibei who have received unfavorable verdicts over the project directors' decision, and those only because the Board felt that insufficient data was available to make up a satisfactory docket—satisfactory not only to the Board but to any Dies minded individuals who might come upon any person cleared without sufficient examination. When the entire segregation of those who fall into the categories slated for Tule Lake, it is not difficult to see why more than ordinary precautions must be taken at this time. I may not understand the thing clearly, but if I do, (and I think I do) it would seem that there are a satisfactory number of appeals open to any person who feels that he is being unjustly sent to Tule. I have had a long conference with Roger Baldwin alone, and one with Roger and Mr. Myer and the ACLU and the WRA lawyers, and Mr. Baldwin seems to feel that under a segregation policy, the safeguards appear to be adequate. However, it will not be long, I think (off the record) before cases will be brought up before the Supreme Court covering the entire segregation program. I shall talk with you at length about that, upon my return.

2) From your question, I gather that you are under the impression that if one member of a family asks for repatriation, that the entire family is doomed to Tule. That is not ~~##~~ at all correct. No person is so obligated, other than children under 17. Even those, all or any, can go out if the parents know of any satisfactory home for them on the outside. Should the entire family go in, any person who would ordinarily be eligible for indefinite leave from any other center, will still be eligible.

3) There will be an extra heavy guard at Tule, and a double breasted wire fence. As to the possible Gen. Grant Tanks, Mr. Myer knows nothing, but would not be surprised if the Army would take advantage of the possibility of using that territory for actual practice in maneuvers. There will be very little else to keep them busy! Because of the recognition of the undoubted loyalty of a large number of the people there, particularly of the citizen youth, the usual Americanism programs will go on—Scouts, Clubs, churches, Y etc, and I am assured that compulsory school attendance will be maintained through the high school level, with standard American requirements. If the evacuees wish to have available Japanese language and culture education, that will be permitted, but the American schools will be "as usual". Mr. Myer has said time and again that the government is taking it for granted that the great majority of these people will remain here, after the war.

4) The idea of pressing for relocation of whole families is being thoroughly explored and pursued as well as possible. Not enough has been done, surely, but apparently the WRA and FSA is making a real effort; I am urging continued emphasis.

Mr. McCloy:

(line lacking)

5) re non-resident fees: The entire matter is being gone into very thoroughly now, and it is hoped that in Idaho there is to be sufficient pressure to have the rule removed. If it is not, and in other cases, if it is necessary, it will be taken to the Supreme Court, and soon, for an opinion which will undoubtedly prove favorable.

6)---Legality of the Segregation policy.--- I would rather talk to you and the rest of Committee at length on this, as the developments seem to be both in my mind and in the mind of Roger Baldwin, definitely in the right direction.

7) Centralization of the authority of WRA in Washington. So far as I can see, and I have conferred with Mr. Myer for something like five hours this week, as well as with Mr. Glick and others, this strong centralization is the result, not of any distrust of or lack of confidence in the Project directors, but in a well based realization that the "Wolves are Out" and that no possible slip can afford to be made in any of the program, particularly at this time. As to the impression that the Committee has not much first hand knowledge, that is true, but I have seen Mr. Glick and Mr. Myer in action, and they have a most amazing ~~the~~ awareness of not only many of the persons involved in each of these cases, but the family problems and burdens which might have extenuating effects upon the persons in question. This may not always be so, it cannot always be so, Undoubtedly there is some confusion, for the entire program is so unprecedented (Thank God) that mistakes are inevitable. But it seems to me that the whole thing is certainly being planned and carried out with the greatest good for the greatest number in mind. The injustices will be many, and some could and should be avoided. But if the segregation program, in any form is to be executed anything like as expeditiously as it must be if the resettlement program is to advance and the bulk of the group returned to normal life, somehow or less inflexible rules must hold. So long as there are checks and appeals open to the persons involved, and many such possibilities do exist, I don't know what more we can urge, other than a scrupulous observation of a just attitude, on the part of Examining Personnel. That, I am sure, we can count on.

So much for your questions. I hope that I have answered them more or less adequately, tho perhaps not entirely satisfactorily.

To report a bit --- I have had a fine, and I trust, profitable time, thus far. My first two interviews were with California Congressmen whose attitudes were known to be sympathetic, Jerry Voorhies and Mr. Holofield. I got their ideas as to what the general feeling of the West Coast Delegation is, and which members should be approached as sympathetic and which as antagonistic. There seems, California like, to be no middle ground! Next week, I shall start on the opposition, then I fear that the chips will fly.

The first conference I had was with Dillon Myer, and the WRA lawyer Mr. Philip Glick, Mr. Roger Baldwin and the ACLU lawyer from New York. They invited me to sit in during their conference. I shall, as I indicated before, report that in person.

My next conference was with Mr. Francis Biddle, Attorney General. I was both amazed and delighted with ~~his~~ his attitude and pronouncements. I still do not feel free to write some of the things which he said, tho I am sure that he did not consider them confidential. That, too, will take a personal reporting. I am enclosing ~~t~~ a copy of the letter I am sending him today, thanking him, and reminding him that he has promised us further "ammunition" from time to time. I am giving Mr. Myer a copy too, at his request, as he wants it as a reminder to Mr. Biddle should it be necessary.

Yesterday I had an hour with Mr. McCloy of the War Department. There seems to be no opinion as to his feeling about the return of certain categories of persons to the categories of persons to the Coast (Fur words lacking)

these interviews, but one hesitates to put much of it in writing. At any rate, I can say that the interview was highly successful, and most encouraging. As a result, I am going to write to General Marshall, whom I knew personally in China, or even get an appointment with him (via McCloy) and urge selective service plus a lot of other things which, if put up in the right way might well go far toward the whole problem of public acceptance, even on the Pacific Coast. I shall let you know as soon as any arrangements are made, or if we decide upon different strategy. Skoal!

I shall continue my report on Monday. Harry came into town yesterday, for a conference with his President's Committee on Fair Employment Practices. It was fun to see him, and good to get his fine counsel again. He is really pretty good!

Next day--

I was glad ### to get your letter in which you told me that you had been reassured about the teaching of English in the centers. I have a feeling that you were probably reassured on many other things, too, as your general picture, as received in Manzanar seems to have been pretty black. I wish that I could report that the tank story about Tululake was wrong. Mr. Myer has just checked it, and it is right. However, there is no reason why it should stay that way it seems to me, with a slight change in emphasis, and we may expect that.

I shall write again soon. Kindly share this with Cush Mc Giffert.

Very sincerely yours,

October 2, 1943

Hon. Francis Biddle
Attorney General
Department of Justice
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Biddle:

It was good of you to give me so much time when we talked together in your office on Thursday. In our conversation concerning some of the problems involved in any rightful consideration of the future of persons of Japanese ancestry here in the United States, it was highly gratifying to find that your attitude is so clearly directed toward a just and fair solution.

As I told you, the purpose of our Committee is the dissemination of authentic information about this particular minority, and about the policies of the agencies responsible for the government's program involved by Executive Order 9102. Such activity seems to be necessary on the Pacific Coast, due to the obvious antagonism of the greater part of the Press, and the resulting lack of full or accurate presentation of any information which has been available.

Our chief source of reference has been to statements released by persons whose unquestioned authority has made it possible, even in this difficult area of controversy, to present some of the high thinking of our leaders to a public which gravely needs to be reminded of the principles and ideals upon which our country is firmly based, and in the protection of which we find ourselves most bitterly at war.

We look forward to more, and repeated reminders from you, as our Attorney General, of the rights of all of our people and of the obligations of all of our people, at all times, but particularly now in the heat of war.

It was indeed gratifying to hear you say that from time to time you will issue such reminders. The country as a whole needs them. The Pacific Coast particularly seems to need to be brought up-to-date in its consideration of a problem which is of national, rather than sectional import.

We count upon you for aid in attaining clarity of thought.

Very sincerely yours,

PASADENA CHAPTER

Oct. 4, 1943

Mr. Thomas M. Erwin,
El Monte, Calif.

My dear Mr. Erwin,

The Pasadena Chapter of the Pacific Coast Committee on American Principles and Fair Play calls to your attention the fact that the reasons for the establishment of a Senate Fact-Finding Committee on Japanese Resettlement as authorized by Senate Resolution No. 122 are unsound and contrary to the American principles of equal rights, privileges, and responsibilities for all, regardless of race, creed or national origin.

The formation of this Fact-Finding Committee was believed necessary because "Japanese people resident in the State of California have proved to be a serious menace to the peace and safety of the people of the state and of the United States as a whole..." ~~The Committee on American Principles and Fair Play denies this statement.~~ The following quotation from the report of Herman P. Eberharter of the Dies Committee shows the inaccuracy of this statement. "It is worthy of note that of all the evacuees who have been released on both seasonal and indefinite leave by the War Relocation Authority, numbering more than 16,000, no report of disloyal or subversive activity has been made to the Authority or to this subcommittee. Moreover, among the Japanese-American population numbering 290,000 in the continental United States and Hawaii, only 32 per cent of whom are in relocation centers, there have been no established cases of sabotage, while there are thousands of cases of loyal workers in industry, agriculture, and in the armed forces of the United States."

The Committee on American Principles and Fair Play also holds that restrictive legislation concerning the return of the Japanese to the West Coast after the termination of the war is contrary to the Constitution of the United States, because it is aimed at a racial minority.

This un-American type of legislation will certainly lead to reprisals by the militarists of Japan against American prisoners of war and American citizens held by the Japanese.

Finally, racial discrimination in the United States gives weight to the enemy's argument that the United Nations are waging a race war, and it is used in propaganda directed at all peoples of the Pacific Area whose collaboration with the United Nations can help immeasurably toward the winning of the war.

Dear Miss Cosgrave:

I am sending under separate cover the WRA comments on the testimonies and the press statements resulting from the Diest Committee investigation. I am including only two copies of each, but will be glad to send more if you will indicate whether you want 10 copies of the entire set or only certain parts of it.

Enclosed is a communication from Miss Jo Clark. Isn't this the same person who made out that application that we referred to your Fresno Branch of the Committee sometime last July? I have written the woman, telling her I have referred the letter to you, and have sent her some literature. Would you please check on this and communicate with her if possible, and at any rate, let me know if anything about her turns up at all?

I would certainly appreciate some list of the individual contributions of the members of the Fresno branch, if such a list is available. If you could send me the half of the membership card that is retained by the Committee, I could make up the information from these.

Thank you very much.

October 5, 1943.

Dear Dr. Deutsch:

For some reason your letter of September 27 was delayed and did not reach me until yesterday. I am sorry that I did not have it at the time of our Council meeting on September 29. It is good of you to write as you have. I hope you understand that I always welcome your advice and suggestions.

Your point of view was well expressed at the Council meeting. There are some of the old dislocated students on our roster who deserve placement and whom we want to help. There is also the new group of high school graduates and there is also the "morale building" function. Tom Bodine, Marion Reith, and others who have visited the Relocation Projects feel strongly the importance of this side of our work.

On the other hand we have now relocated virtually as many students as were in colleges and universities on the West Coast at the time of Pearl Harbor. The number of active cases remaining in our files is quite small. Relocation by the WRA is increasing; John Provinse reported at the meeting that it is now up to 700 per week. Our operations so far have been on the whole economical. I am proud of a figure for administrative costs of between $32 and $33 per student. Our expenses per student from now on will go up very sharply and would not be justified merely by our help in relocation. They would have to be justified by our contribution to morale. This is not the function for which the Council was originally created, but it might be viewed as a legitimate additional function which we might perform.

One of our difficulties is a lack of funds. We have enough money to carry on until March 1, with I hope a little left over for emergencies. In spite of all our efforts we have not received any cordial or generous support from the Church Boards for our administrative overhead. Let me make it clear that certain of the Church Boards have been most generous to the students themselves in granting scholarships. Last February, however, the Council was in a difficult situation, and the Church Boards assumed the responsibility of seeing it through its job. If it had not been for the very generous help from the Columbia Foundation, we could not have continued to function. We have received from various foundations $35,000, from the Church Boards only $10,000. I am frankly disappointed both at the past performance of the Boards and at the present prospects of any future support from them. While representatives will not commit themselves, my own impression is that Church Board interest is dwindling. Consequently there is a very practical question whether we shall be able to continue beyond the point made possible by our present funds. I would prefer to end at a time when we have done one part of our job and done it I think reasonably well than to continue in a lingering fashion and ultimately die of inanition. It is always difficult for an organization to know when to stop, and very few have the courage voluntarily to eliminate themselves when they have passed their period of maximum usefulness.

These are some of the pros and cons in a little more detail than you will find in the minutes of the Council meeting, which you will shortly receive. I hope you will let me have your help and advice.

With warm personal regards, I am

Yours sincerely,

My dear Mr. Harrison:

The question you raise about the proposed policy of our Committee favoring the placing of Chinese upon a quota basis seems so important that I hope it will be possible for Galen Fisher and me to consult you about it personally before the next meeting of the Executive Committee which is scheduled, I believe, for the end of next week. Mr. Fisher and I could meet you on Tuesday, Wednesday or Thursday.

Would you mind phoning the Committee's secretary, Miss Mary Jefferds at Ashberry 6214, and give her two or three alternative hours in which you could see us. She will try to work out a convenient time.

May I also raise with you the question of the advisability of incorporating our Committee. Committee on American Principles and Fair Play

October 7, 1943

Mr. A. B. Ruddock
1000 Quinby Building
Los Angeles, California.

My dear Mr. Ruddock:

Mr. Scott has turned over your correspondence to me as Chairman of the Executive Committee of the Pacific Coast Committee on American Principles and Fair Play. Your readiness to work with us in behalf of the minority groups if mutually satisfactory policies can be worked out is heartening. There are plenty of allies at work or ready to work for this cause, but it is not always easy for us to find each other or to reinforce each other's efforts.

As you know, the originating impulse behind the formation of the original committee and its subsequent revival under its present name grew out of the shock of the treatment accorded Japanese-Americans. Other minority groups have long received unfair treatment and many of the people who came together to form the present committee were members of still other committees working on behalf of other minorities. When the Japanese-descended people, however, became the special and dramatic victims of racial prejudice the formation of a special group seemed justified to help to bring to bear in their behalf our American Principles. Most of the people who have joined this particular committee have joined because they understood that we were to focus on the Japanese-Americans, and as our releases indicate our efforts thus far have been concentrated on this otherwise much neglected group.

However, when we formulated our purpose we foresaw that other Oriental people might sometime come within the scope of our concern. (see By-Laws Paragraph 2) We also recognized that attempts to discriminate against one group of minorities tends to undermine the rights of other minorities, as well as of the majority.

Your desire to widen the focus of our purpose therefore is implicit in our original aims. Which additional minority group or other victims of an impaired Bill of Rights the Committee might include now becomes a matter of policy and will need to be decided on the basis of such factors as the effectiveness of other agencies already at work in behalf of other racial minorities, the ability of our organization to expand its concern without sacrificing their momentum and influence gained in behalf of the minority group on which we originally focused, etc. Looking toward the development of policy in these latter directions, would you approve of the following changes in our By-Laws: 1) The amendment of Article II - PURPOSE - by the substitution for the last two words (Oriental ancestry) of the words "minority racial groups" so that it reads as follows: "The purpose of the Organization is to support the principles enunciated in the Constitution of the United States, and to that end to maintain, unimpaired, the liberties guaranteed in the Bill of Rights, particularly for persons of minority racial groups." 2) The revision of paragraph III (c) to read "That legislation to deprive any Americans belonging to racial minority groups of their legal rights would set a precedent for depriving other minority racial groups of their rights, and would weaken the confidence of our Allies, particularly those in Asia and Latin America, in the sincerity of our professions to be fighting for the rights of all peoples." 3) The elimination of III (d).

If, in general these changes meet your approval, subject to editorial correction, I shall be happy to bring them up at the meeting of the Executive Committee next week. I have little doubt that they will meet with the Committee's approval.

I should like early next week to deal with the other matters in your letter but must confine this letter to the one matter of the re-statement of the purpose of the Committee.

Gentlemen:

It was with great pleasure indeed that I received in the mail today, three copies of the Daily Californian of August 25th with a front page story concerning the American Legion resolution. It is indeed heartening to see that there are Californians who are vitally interested in fighting for and perpetuating a democratic tradition.

In spite of the fact that we are evacuees, many of us are concerned, not so much over the welfare of 100,000 people but rather with a danger of setting up a system based on intolerance and prejudice which may have devastating effects to numerous other groups after the war. The fine work that you are doing is a step in the direction that I am sure that the vast majority of thoughtful citizens wish to go.

Thank you for your thoughtfulness. We certainly appreciate it. Trusting you will continue your very fine work, I remain,

October 9, 1943

Hon. John J. McCloy
Assistant Secretary of War
War Department
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. McCloy:

It was good of you to give me so much of your time last Thursday morning when we discussed some of the questions pertaining to Japanese Americans. It is reassuring to us on the Pacific Coast to know that what has been too often considered a peculiarly sectional problem is receiving the considered attention of our federal government.

Your personal recognition of the responsibility of the War Department in any equitable solution of the problems confronted by our Americans of Japanese ancestry gives us deep satisfaction. To many thinking Californians, it appears self-evident that the responsibility for evacuation of such persons from the Western Defense Command having been accepted by the War Department, any final solution or resolution of the problems created by the evacuation order rests as a continued responsibility with that same body.

We who are deeply concerned that the outgrowth of military necessity shall not prove a permanent denial of the principles for which we find ourselves so bitterly at war, are satisfied that the War Department is determined that no such deplorable result shall be considered acceptable.

If a truly decent and even relatively fair deal is to be given our loyal Americans of Japanese ancestry, it is obvious that such fairness will have to be initiated by the War Department. To meet the long prevalent attitude on the West Coast, inculcated and developed by the natural bitterness aroused by war as well as by the less legitimate hate barrages of the Chronic Campaigners such as Hearst Mountain et al, a strong position by your Department will be the only possible avenue through which public opinion can be properly changed.

May I take this opportunity to summarize some of the steps which might be taken with sound support from large numbers of influential Californians, a support which will increase with the gradual recognition that the return of certain categories of the evacuees has the strong support, as well as the approval of the War Department.

Mr. Hearst, et al

1. The continuation of the policy permitting Nisei soldiers to move ~~more~~ freely in all parts of the United States.

2. Added emphasis on enlistment of WACS and their assignment to duty on the Pacific Coast.

3. The return to the Pacific Coast of veterans of World War I, with full responsibility for their safety and well being squarely in the hands of the American Legion.

4. The return of the wives and children of Nisei in the service, to the homes for which their husbands and fathers have the right to feel that they are fighting.

5. The gradual return of law-abiding parents of these same service men and their wives.

6. Most particularly, the reinstatement of Selective Service, with a positive approach to the administrative problems involved. With the excellent precedent of the second generation Sicilians in Sicily, the same highly successful procedures might well be followed in the South Pacific, particularly as the move northward into the Japanese islands is effected.

7. It is our profound hope that it will be deemed advisable to assign an officer to General Emons' staff whose duty it will be to see that full and proper use is made of all news dispatches and all announcements of policy which can be used on the West Coast to reassure our people. We are confident that the great majority will willingly accept the judgment of our military leadership in this as in other areas.

May we look forward to our War Department for that leadership?

Very sincerely,

Dear Mrs. Hoiem:

Mr. Fisher requested me to answer your letter of October 3, directed to him, since several questions were included that were concerned with the work of this office.

First, may I apologize for the delayed answer to the questions asked in your previous letters. I have sent some material under separate cover that I think will supplement the information you have unearthed. By this time, you have also probably received the Dies Committee comments by the WRA that were sent to all our membership. This was the material that I had referred to in a previous letter, that I had expected to be mailed much earlier, but the mailing was delayed due to a lack of certain reports that had to be supplied by the San Francisco office of the WRA. The office was rather rushed following Mrs. Kingman's departure to Washington and your letter apparently got misplaced in the shuffle. May I say again that I regret any inconvenience that was caused you.

Of the material that I have mailed under separate cover, may I ask the return of the the reports sent to us by Mr. J.W. Pehle? We have other copies of the other material but we would like to have the reports he includes, with his letter, returned for our files.

You may be interested to know that we are having Mr. Fisher's articles reprinted in a pamphlet form, that will be available for sale and distribution in the near future.

Hi Boss!

Sorry I don't think of all these things for the same letter.

Received copies of your Washington Correspondence, and have referred same to Mr. Fisher, Dr. McGiffert, and Dr. Dorothy Thomas.

A 24 page, well printed reprint of Mr. Fisher's articles in the four consecutive issues of the Christian Century, has been decided upon. The pamphlet will include a blurb on the author, and a statement of the work of the Committee, along with a list of the Executive Committee and Advisory Board members. Prices are as follows:

$.10 each, if purchased separately
$ 1.00 for 12 copies
$ 1.75 for 25 copies
$ 6.00 per hundred.

(The blurb on the author, incidentally, carries an exoneration of the Committee on views expressed.) Mr. Fisher thought that various people in Washington might be interested in an order of a number of pamphlets. Have heard nothing more about possibility of a Readers' Digest condensation. Am including a set of the articles to let any prospective purchaser get the drift. 11 in hand.

Have fun!

Dear Mr. Roosevelt:

The Pasadena Chapter of the Pacific Coast Committee on American Principles and Fair Play wishes to express appreciation of your recent statement that "the large majority" of persons of Japanese ancestry in America "are loyal to the democratic institutions of the United States" and that "we shall restore to the loyal evacuees the right to return to the evacuated areas as soon as the military situation will make such a restoration feasible."

Throughout the Pacific Coast area there are many citizens who while they cooperated in all military decisions made in regard to the evacuation of Japanese Americans, deeply regretted the hysterical hostility shown against them. They now deplore efforts by certain groups to have laws passed which would prevent the return of all Japanese Americans even after the war.

We view with concern this attack on a minority group, for if rights and privileges guaranteed in the Bill of Rights and the Constitution can be set aside for any group of Americans, then citizenship in the United States loses its meaning and no minority group is safe from attack.

However, we are reassured by the clarity with which you envisage the underlying principles involved and we are confident that your leadership in the settlement of this problem will continue to be courageous.

Sincerely yours,

COLLEGE OF THE PACIFIC
STOCKTON, CALIFORNIA

Oct. 12, 1943.

Mrs. Ruth W. Kingman,
San Francisco, Calif.

Dear Mrs. Kingman:

Thank you for the information concerning Mr. Fisher's invaluable articles on Evacuation. I am enclosing order for $1.75 for which please send me twenty five copies.

Money Order for 1.75 held in
Mr. Scott's
office

The good work of the Committee is most heartening and is doing a service far beyond what the committee can fully appreciate. It is a bitter pill to some of us that Stockton has been such a laggard and a spot where the need is so great. Perhaps something can yet be done.

Very sincerely,

George
