

02.157

67/14
c

QUID NUNC

PUBLISHED MONTHLY BY THE LATIN CLASS
OF THE
MANZANAR HIGH SCHOOL

EDITOR..... Rosie Hanawa
 ASSISTANT EDITOR..... Shigeru Honda
 NEWS EDITOR..... Teddy Hayashi
 FEATURE EDITORS..... Kyoko Kamo
 Bryce Nishimura
 Matsue Nishimori
 BUSINESS MANAGERS..... Mary Hiram
 Tayeko Shimizu
 MAKE-UP..... Michiko Mizumoto
 Aki Ozawa
 Henry Nakano
 Haruko Tatsumi
 ARTISTS..... Ben Hori
 Tayeko Shimizu
 Frank Takeyama

REPORTERS

Kimiko Anzai, Emy Araki, Akira Hiram, Mary Hiram,
 Teddy Ikeda, Susumu Ioki, Kimiko Kato, Lillian Kimura,
 Elizabeth Kitagawa, Aiko Kurosumi, Irene Matsumoto,
 Bobby Miyatake, Teruko Motooka, Masako Nagano, Hideyo
 Nakaji, Matsue Nishimori, Ujiaki Niwa, Haruko Ogi,
 Mamoru Ogi, Raymond Oka, Kei Ono, Akiko Osawa, Misuko
 Ryono, Yukiko Shigemori, Grace Shinoda, Pat Takeyama,
 Haruko Tatsumi, Cherry Yamada, June Yoshie.

Pagina IV

April 14, 1944

EDITORIALS IT'S UP TO YOU

Editorials may come and editorials may go, but the staff of the QUID NUNC hopes this one will linger in the minds of the students, especially the Freshmen. It is a well-known fact that many Seniors of past years spent their first three years having a good time and their fourth year wishing they had studied during the first three years. Of course the Freshmen don't include themselves, because they are just going out to "get on the honor roll."

Keep your grades up at all times. Some students have the idea that good times and good grades just cannot be found at the same place. If you look around that idea will soon be altered.

So come on, Undergraduates! Keep those grades up so your parents won't have to bear the shock of not seeing you graduate with the class you started.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Dear Feature Editor:

I advise you to quit the corrupt paper (Campus Pepper) and devote all your time and energy to that wonderful new paper QUID NUNC.

Yours truly,
 Mr. Anthony

P.S. Because the advice will greatly benefit Manzanar, I charge no fee.

(This letter was written to the feature editor of the CAMPUS PEPPER who is also the editor of the QUID NUNC by the former associate editor of the CAMPUS PEPPER.--- Ed. Note.)

Out of the PIGEON HOLE

The Roman language is by many people considered to be a dead language. However, if one should examine his surroundings, he would find that many things, directly or indirectly, are influenced by the Roman culture.

Many people say the Romans were too warlike, and therefore dislike them because of their hatred of physical violence. Those people overlook the fact that while the Romans were belligerent, they were also very practical. The Romans developed practical things which are still in evidence today. Principles of law are especially in force today. Language is related to the Roman tongue, Latin, in countless ways. Even our capital buildings, both state and federal, can, architecturally speaking, be traced back to the architecture of the ancient Romans, not to mention innumerable other examples in this field.

After all, we must admit that the Roman civilization imposed upon conquered nations did much more good than bad. And when certain phases of the culture of the conquered peoples were better, Rome absorbed those good things. Consider Greece, for example. There is a famous saying which goes something like this: Conquered Greece took captive her rude conqueror, Rome. There is an example in that statement even for us.

NOTICE:

Since it seems that the boys are rather bashful (?) tickets have been sold to girls who may give them to boys so that they may really go "Leap Year" style!

After School
 Today at
 Mess. 2
 Don't Forget!

TRIUMPHUS ROMANUS

HOW'S YOUR INTELLECT

So sorry that no news about Miss Kramer is in today's column. The writer has been threatened with dire consequences if the problems of her private life were published.

My little spy telephoned to me that Masako N. was seen at the soph's dance. Wonder what the attraction was, Mas? Or wasn't he there?

Better watch out K. Anzai. Stepping out without Nori M. will not do you any good, if you want to hook him.

Emy A., don't play hard to get. Next time S. Kitayama may not ask you.

Come on, Teddy I. Don't play hard to get. All the slick chicks are waiting. Lay off the books and pay some attention to the gals.

Seems like Shig H. says he's going to be a hermit again. What's the matter? Don't the girls give you a tumble?

Who's the kid you wait for in the library to walk you home, Yuki S.? Might get caught in the fire-break somenight, Yuke.

To this reporter's view Henry N. seems to be interested in our venerable editor. At least they get very friendly.

Miss Kramer planned to become a nurse's aid; but changed her mind. What's the matter? Don't you like "old blood and guts"? (I'll get murdered for this.)

I hear Raymond O. conveyed the girls home from the Mess Hall after making popcorn balls. That's the way to do it Casanova!

Valete, till next time! Better be good, who knows? We might see you while you're being bad.

REMEMBER

BEER IS Impediment Day!

Dux Romanus multas terras superavit. Provincias et oppida occupavit. Fama belli magna est. Romani ducem et copias exspectant. Per Roman in magno triumpho ad Capitolium vehitur. Romani hanc pompam "triumphum" appellaverunt.

In triumpho erant arma et signa et equi et servi et pecunia et interdum barbara regina. Poetae et puellae et feminae ducem spectant et laudant. Memoria factorum longa erit. Bellum longum erat sed fortuna Romanorum bona. Dant Romani militibus multa praemia, pulchra arma et pecuniam. Dux et viri triumphum amant.

Pop: Imbecile: "How's the report card, son?"
Wacky son: "All wet!"
Pop: "What do you mean by that?"
Son: "Below "C" level!"

Try this New Puzzle. It is very simple once you catch on.

The Puzzle works on the same principle as the sample.

Sample

Wood

John

Mass

John Underwood

Andover, Mass.

O Cur Tua Te
Be Bis Bia Abit
Ra Ra Ra
Es Et In
Ram Ram Ram

II

Clue: Super

-oOo-

Usher: "Would you like to sit down front?"

Moron: "I'm sorry but I don't bend that way!"

-oOo-

Rosie: "Who's the father of corn?"

Bobbie: "I guess I don't know!"

Rosie: "Pop corn!"

This Month's CROSSWORD PUZZLE (solution next month)

- Across
- What the girls in Per. I are.
 - Hello! _____!
 - _____ to the Red Cross.
 - reflexive pronoun
 - your _____
 - _____ comb your hair?
 - All the gals fall for a _____.
 - angry _____
 - conjunction
 - I like sugar _____ cream on cereal.
 - personal pronoun
 - Et _____, Brute?
 - voice _____
 - Nice sunny day today.
 - to them _____
 - You have to obey the _____, or the cops will get you!
 - soon _____
 - conjunction
 - without _____
 - personal pronoun acc.

- B. place
- tomorrow
 - I think I will rescue me a fair damsel from a high _____.
 - before _____
 - conjunction
 - or _____
 - Every man wants a _____ to cook for him.
 - to be sure, indeed
 - grief
 - personal pronoun acc.
 - law
 - Get _____ of here!
 - Come _____!
 - from _____

- Down
- language
 - preposition
 - after

1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9
10	11	12	13	14	15	16	17	18
19	20	21	22	23	24	25	26	27
28	29	30	31	32	33	34	35	36
37	38	39	40	41	42	43	44	45
46	47	48	49	50	51	52	53	54
55	56	57	58	59	60	61	62	63
64	65	66	67	68	69	70	71	72
73	74	75	76	77	78	79	80	81

QUID NUNC

PAGINA II

Interpretations

Legatus

Did you ever see a tall, slim, good-looking girl usually walking around the campus? Yes? Well then you've probably guessed that it is Elizabeth "Yas" Kitagawa, Legata of the Sodalitas Latina. She's formerly from Emerson Jr. High in West L.A.

Ice-skating, baseball, basketball, football, ping pong, and hockey are her favorite sports. Her favorite pastime is WOLFIN'. She claims her hardest course is study-hall and so does Mr. Rogers.

Venus Nota

Olim Juppiter, rex deorum virorumque, horribilem dolorem capitis habebat, et propter hoc orbem terrarum vastabat. Itaque eius filium Mercurium eum juvare rogabat. Cum Mercurius medicinam adferre temptabat, nihil juvabat. Igitur caput Jovis cultro cecidit, et ab vulnere Venus, dea amoris et pulchritudinis, edebatur.

Solution to Puzzle on Pagina III

O superba, cur superbis? Tua superbia te superabit. Terra es, et in terram ibis.

- SUCH IS LIFE -

ROGUR N. Sala

Bang! Crash!
Rosie! Miss Kramer!
More butter - hurry up -
Hey Bobbie!
Anyone passing Mess 21 and 15 Wednesday and Thursday nights probably wondered what all the excitement was about. It was only the mighty Sodalitas Latina popping pop corn (sure was good while it was hot, huh gang?)

The result of all the hard work was seen by the Manza-hi students when the popcorn was sold after school on Wednesday and Thursday. The popcorn balls sold out immediately when put out on the counter.

Comments heard were as follows:

"Tastes like back-home stuff!"

"Sure black, huh?"

"Mm - mm - mm good!"

"This stuff is so hard that they should have called them concrete balls instead of popcorn balls."

"Ought to do this more often!"

Solution of Last Week's Crossword Puzzle

Q	U	I	D	N	U	N	C
U	T	E	A	E	A	R	A
I	C	U	M	E	M	E	R
S	U	U	S	H	I	O	B
I	N	E	I	S	W
B	C	R	A	S	D	A	R
A	U	T	E	M	O
R	B	U	X	R	E	S
B	I	S	I	U	A
A				O	P	T	I
E	N	U	N	T	I	A	R

Chack Yourself

Do you know the following underlined words and letters? If not, check yourself in the dictionary.

In the game only bona fide students are allowed to play; others are unfit to represent your Alma Mater. You go to the game and pay your money (which has e pluribus unum stamped on it) to the manager, who is ex officio gatekeeper. Your team beats the other (or vice versa) and the captain makes an ex tempore speech. You pretend the other team is dead, and you hold a post mortem celebration, parading the streets with a facsimile of the rival school marked Requiescat in Pace.

If the principal opposes athletics, you may argue pro and con(tra), urging a referendum to the students. A single lapsus linguae may spoil your case in toto. You may use an effective a priori argument, or say there is prima facie evidence that football is a good thing; but if you fail to make your point, things remain instatu quo, the principal gives his ultimatum, and you make your exit.

And so I could go on ad infinitum not only about football, but about fiat money, ad valorem tariff duties, ex post facto laws and ante bellum days, when the per capita income of the country was less per annum than it is now. But you ought to be studying your Latin, instead of reading about it, so I shall stop.

QUID NUNC

Vol. I No. II A.D. XVIII Kal. April PAGI

POPCORN SALE TODAY IS LUGGAGE DAY!
 ACCLAIMED SUCCESS GIRLS CARRY BOOKS;
 DANCE TO BE FILED

The Sodalitas Latina has "dood" it again. On March 30 and 31, a popcorn sale was launched by this ever-active, hustle-bubbling club with the oomph of its active sponsor, Miss Mary Jean Kramer backing it.

The members gave their full cooperation as every member was present at Mess 21 and 15 respectively to lend a hand at the assembly line. Bending over the hot stove, Chilebeans, Mich, Terry, Rosie, Emi, Mamo, and Ben were all in a "rhumba" line to the music of the popping corn.

Bobbie was working himself down to a midget stirring the witches' brew (syrup) in heated competition with Teddy Ikeda and Raymond.

Haruko, Aki, Akio, and many more were luxing their hands in Karo-you know-t-h-a-t fourteen-day beauty treatment for the hands.

Seen getting their stomachs full between intervals were Lizzy, Teruko M, Henry, Matsu, Teddy H. and company.

Miss Kramer was seen casting doubtful glances, but also licking her Karo-sticky hands in beaming approval. All in all, a hilarious time was enjoyed by everyone.

At the regular meeting of the Sodalitas Latina on March 29, the sale had been planned to the minutest detail. Thus the sale was a complete success for both days. At this meeting Aiko Kurosuni was also elected the new Publicity Manager.

FLASH
 President of Student Body Request Return Engagement

Because of the successful Latin Assembly which the Latin Club put on last December for the entire student body of the Manzanar High School, Student Body President George Nishimura and Vice-President George Takahashi have made a special request to Miss Mary Jean Kramer, adviser, that another assembly be put on. The Sodalitas Latinas feel honored and plans for the next assembly to be held in June will probably get under way soon.

Latin Class Has Visitor From Santuana

Mrs. Budd, a Latin teacher of ninth grade students at Frances Willard Junior High School in Santa Ana was here visiting Manzanar High School on Tuesday, April 4. She was particularly interested of course, in the Latin classes.

Mrs. Budd, as the reader has already guessed, is the mother of Miss Ruth Budd, our own librarian.

Once again the Sodalitas Latinas are rolling up their sleeves for another activity. This time it is a Luggage Day for the entire student body.

Bids were sold to the boys at 10¢ each. Each boy who purchased one of these tickets has given it to a girl. The girls who have received tickets from boys must carry their books for them as long as the boys make them, and that will probably be all day.

At 3:30 today, the Luggage Day will end with a dance at Mess 2 for which these tickets will be the price of admission. If the couple does not desire to come together, it has been made possible by the double ticket. Along with the offer comes the refreshments which will be served at the dance. Any one who misses this is not in his right mind, it is evident.

Latinas to Buy Pins

The members of the Latin Club have decided to purchase club pins instead of sweaters or rings, it was announced recently. A pin catalog has just arrived, and a committee is taking care of the problem of ordering for them so that they will arrive before school ends.

Wednesday, at a regular meeting of the Latinas, the Luggage Day committees were chosen. It is hoped that all will come, as it will be one of the best after-school activities of the semester.