Dear Fellow-member:

This is an accounting for the last year, and a request for a renewal of your membership contribution to this Committee. A partial summary of activities is attached, "partial" because some of the most important achievements don't lend themselves to formal report.

You are one of over 800 members, up and down the Coast. The king-pin of course, is our able Executive Secretary, Mrs. Kingman. She is supplemented by Office Secretary Mary Jefferds, and by Mrs. C.M. Siegley, Secretary at Seattle. Without their resourceful, day by day work, few of the home-runs of the year could have been chalked up. But by the same token, they couldn't get far without the manifold activities of us members, who write letters to the papers and to Eastern friends, discuss with our neighbors, speak to all sorts of forums, and distribute printed matter or interview key persons.

Compared with the bigness of the job and the funds spent by the race-baiters, our budget is very small, only $7,000 for the ten months ending December 31, 1943. For 1944 $8,500 will be needed. Several hundred of this will go toward getting a new Chapter going in Los Angeles from which an equal amount should come to the central treasury. The fight will continue to be as hot as it was last year, even though some significant gains have been won.

You gave $2.7 last year. How about raising it? Please respond promptly in the enclosed envelope.

Dear Fellow-Member:

This is an accounting for the last year, and a request for a renewal of your membership contribution to the Committee. A partial summary of activities is enclosed. "Particular" accounts given of the most important achievements don't find themselves in formal report.

You are one of over 800 members, of and down the Coast. The kind of course, is the same as before. Secretary, Mrs. Kinsman. She is supplemented by Office Secretary Mary Heller, and by Mrs. C.H. Bessley. Secretary at Seattle. Without their resources, they could have by any means, few of the home-works of the year could have been checked up. But by the same token, they couldn't get that without the material facilities of its members, who write letters to the papers and to Eastern friends, discuss with our neighbors, speak to all sorts of forums, and distribute printed matter or interview key persons.

Donated with the objects of the job and the funds spent by the office, our budget is very small. Only $1,000 for the year ending December 31, 1933. For 1934, $2,000 will be needed. Several hundred of this will go toward getting a new Chapter going in Los Angeles. For which an extra amount should come to the central treasury. The spirit will continue to be as hot as it was last year, even though some significant gains have been won.

Dear Fellow-member:

This is an accounting for the last year, and a request for a renewal of your membership contribution to this Committee. A partial summary of activities is attached, "partial" because some of the most important achievements don't lend themselves to formal report.

You are one of over 800 members, up and down the Coast. The king-pin of course, is our able Executive Secretary, Mrs. Kingman. She is supplemented by Office Secretary Mary Jefferds, and by Mrs. C.M. Siegley, Secretary at Seattle. Without their resourceful, day by day work, few of the home-runs of the year could have been chalked up. But by the same token, they couldn't get far without the manifold activities of us members, who write letters to the papers and to Eastern friends, discuss with our neighbors, speak to all sorts of forums, and distribute printed matter or interview key persons.

Compared with the bigness of the job and the funds spent by the race-baiters, our budget is very small, only $7,000 for the ten months ending December 31, 1943. For 1944 $8,500 will be needed. Several hundred of this will go toward getting a new Chapter going in Los Angeles from which an equal amount should come to the central treasury. The fight will continue to be as hot as it was last year, even though some significant gains have been won.

You gave $5.- last year. How about raising it? Please respond promptly in the enclosed envelope.

Cordially yours,

Galen M. Fisher
Assistant Treasurer
