madame minnie's Prophecy

Oh look!! It says "Madame Minnie's Fortune Telling Joint." How's about goin' in an seein' what's in store for some of the "ole seniors" of the class of '44. While we're waitin' for Minnie's predictions, let's take a look at the astrology magazine that's lying on the table over there.

"What's this!! It says that LILLIAN ODA will be 'packin' her grips' and be leavin' for Carnegie Hall any day now."

"Oh oh! After ten years of faithless missionary work in Japan, we see Reverend AKI WATANABE committing 'dishonorable hari-kari.'"

"Could that be yardbird TOMIO AKIMOTO picking up cigarette butts on the parade grounds at Camp Blanding while Sgt. HITOSHI KANZAKI looks on. 'Hey Tomio!! Pick 'em all up, you're leavin' too many for SHIG KOZU.'"

"Let's turn the page and see what's cookin' on the other side!"

"Say now!! Won't HIROSHI YONEYAMA look so handsome with two gold bars on his shoulders."

"And, ah yes! There's KATIE MATSUDA in her bathing suit. What does the banner say? Oh, it says 'Miss America of 1954!!'"

"Lookie here!! This advertisement says, 'if you need an opera-shun in the near future, see Doctor AKIKO ENDO or if you have minor aches and pains see AMY YAMASHITA, head nurse at the dispensary.'"

"Hey!! Turn the page and let me read the list of prophecies of the rest of the Senior Class. Look there is:

HERBERT AMANO---Handsome is still wearing his $15 jacket.

ANNIE TAEKO YAMADA---The first Japanese American women in the Marines.

VICTOR HINATSU---A pappa with five kids on each knee.

ESTHER TSUJI---Comfortably on her ten acre mansion.
