SOCIAL HALL READY

The Social Hall in Rec. 6, after a week of frantic renovations is beautifully ready to welcome guests. It has new cream ceiling and walls and is a picture of home-like comfort with its upholstered furniture and hand-crocheted doilies. We hope that many people, especially couples, will take advantage of its comforts. Our only request is that those who come will be considerate in the use of the place by avoiding defacing of walls, scratching of furniture, or soiling of the upholstery. This little courtesy observed, the Social Hall will long be a place of enjoyment for residents of Sections I & II.

CAREFUL PLEASE!

Rec. 12 is again open for use by the public. Everyone please cooperate and refrain from soiling or defacing the new walls.

3090 ATTEND EXHIBIT

Section II Handicraft Exhibit, which brought out some of the most outstanding talents of the residents living in its section, ended its four-day showing after a record crowd of 3090 flowed through the display room in Recreation Hall 6.

The exhibit had on display many pieces of bitterbrush carvings, numerous needlework articles, several large flying model planes, rock collections of various shapes and size and beautiful artificial flowers.

The inlay woodwork was declared one of the most outstanding work of art. A table representing the work of hospital patients received many favorable comments. The general arrangement of all the exhibits also received comments.

Mrs. Tama Sakai, handicraft supervisor of Section II and the chairman of the exhibit said that the results of the showing were most gratifying.

"People in our section responded magnificently to our program. Without their fine support our exhibit would not have been the success that it was", she stated.

"It was a huge success", declared Linc Beppu, Section II Coordinator. "We had a good one-third of the project's population out to see the arts and crafts, or almost the entire adult population".

Mr. Beppu pointed out that several visitors from the outside viewed the exhibit, including servicemen on leave and residents of Twin Falls and Jerome. John Province, Chief of Community Services from the National Office in Washington D.C. was also a spectator.
