A PLEASANT SURPRISE

We have been fortunate in persuading Mr. Kenneth Robertson to address our forthcoming meeting in place of Mr. John Flanagan who will be with us at another meeting in the near future.

Mr. Robertson hails from Berkeley, California, and graduated from the University of Utah and from Georgetown University in Washington, D.C. He was recently appointed the Secretary of Labor's Personal Regional Representative for the Western States. In this capacity he serves as director of the Department's activities in the West and as its official spokesman. He has worked for the Department of Labor for 26 years; in 1948 he was assigned to San Francisco as regional attorney, and in 1963 he was appointed the Secretary's regional representative in Washington, D.C.

As Mr. Robertson will undoubtedly express Secretary Wirtz' opinions on forthcoming legislative actions of the new congress, his presentation should be of great interest to all of us.
