New: THE WOMAN WHO TOILS — An account of a "factory girl's" working life in 1903; reprinted by the Institute of Industrial Relations in 1974, with an Introduction by Daniel J.B. Mitchell, Associate Professor of Industrial Relations, UCLA.

In her personal account of a woman worker's life in various factory and workshop settings, author Bessie Van Vorst gives a realistic view of working conditions and living arrangements, social attitudes and sentiment at the turn of the century. Professor Mitchell's extensive introduction provides modern perspective and meaningful economic analysis to Van Vorst's message of her time. Price: $3.50.

Forthcoming: CALIFORNIA GOVERNMENTAL LABOR RELATIONS—ONE STEP CLOSER TO REALITY. Proceedings of a Major Conference on Public Sector Labor Management Relations, May 2-3, 1974.

Please Note: WOMEN AT WORK — AN ANNOTATED BIBLIOGRAPHY, by Mei Liang Bickner, is in its second printing. An increase of 50 cents will become effective 1 June 1975, raising the price of the book to $6.50.
