W. G. Storie, President, San Francisco Employers Council, announced that the following offer had been made to Optical Technicians and Workers Union No. 18791 on behalf of the Optical Employers Association. //

A wage increase of $4.00 per week, retroactive to November 1, 1955. This will establish a new rate for journeymen of $103.20 per week.

In addition, the Employers have agreed to pay the $36.00 that the employees have ^{or may pay} paid into the Health and Welfare Fund during the course of the strike. Also, the Employers have offered to waive time lost during the strike and to grant full vacation time this year.

MAY 16 1956

It is estimated that the cost of this package based on the journeymen's rate is the equivalent of 17.3¢ per hour, $6.92 per week, or $29.96 per month for time worked for the remaining time of the contract, which terminates October 31, 1956.

The offer is made on the condition that the new contract with struck and non-struck independent firms will be uniform with the contract between the Union and the Optical Employers Association.

This strike is ~~now~~ entering the ^{11th} ~~tenth~~ week and the following firms have been picketed: Ferrari-Risi Optical Company, Franklin Optical Company, John F. Wooster Company ~~Opticians~~, Jenkel Davidson Optical Company, Drake Opticians, Pacific Optical Co., Parsons Optical Laboratories.
