Dear Brother:

RUSH, repeat, RUSH information on off-campus housing and details about coming conference.

Also, include information about whose putting up the money for this conference. A group here in D.C. is planning the same sort of gig, but they're using CIS, Justice Department money and I can't dig the scene. Thanks.

ATTENTION: Conference Coordinator

Dear Sir:

My heart was warmed to receive the information concerning your upcoming conference. I am the chairman of a Sacramento group; The Black Journalists and Broadcasters, which has goals extremely similar to yours. You have my compliments for planning such an important conference.

I did notice, however, one glaring oversight in the list of people you have united to address the conference. The name of John Woodford was missing. John Woodford is the editor of Muhammad Speaks, a weekly Black newspaper with a circulation of over 600,000. Surely you can see how proposterous a meeting of Black journalists would be without the presence of such a distinguished gentleman. I hope that the absence of his name was merely an oversight and not a deliberate slight.

We are looking forward to attending the upcoming National Conference of Black News Media Workers to be held at Lincoln University in Jefferson City, Missouri, June 26, 27 & 28 with great enthusiasm.

Respectfully yours,

Mel Whitaker

Gentlemen:

I am making application to be permitted to attend the conference scheduled for June 26th., 27th. and 28th. at Lincoln University in Jefferson City, Missouri.

It was brought to my attention by Claude Lewis and Mrs. Angela Terrell of the Philadelphia Evening Bulletin.

I am working with the black newsmen in the city preparing to launch a television interview program titled BLACK PERSPECTIVE ON THE NEWS (once in Los Angeles) with the black newspeople totally in control of the content. They will be supported by a black staff here at the station, including the producer (myself). The series will be on the Eastern Educational Network this summer, looking towards full educational network this fall.

It would be most advantageous for me to attend for many reasons, but primarily because I am interested in what I can do to help with your efforts.

Executive Producer.*

Dear Brothers and Sisters:

This will acknowledge receipt of the announcement of the National Conference of Black News Media Workers.

The May issue of the Patriot is just going to press and the June issue will get out too late. So we are sending your memo to black journalists along with the next set of news releases which we issue.

These go to about 130 black media, and may be even more effective than having a piece in The Patriot, where it might go unnoticed.

Please let us know any further way we can be of help.

Yours for justice & peace,
