Biography

With Carl Henry, Harold Ockenga and Harold Lindsell, Wilbur Moorehead Smith (1894-1976) was a founding faculty member of Fuller Theological Seminary and contributed his own 16,000 volume library as the foundation for the Seminary's collection.

Born in Chicago into a family which attended Moody Memorial Church, as a youth Smith had frequent contact with some of the great names of Evangelical Christianity of the early 20th century, among them R. A. Torrey, Billy Sunday, and A. C. Dixon. Wilbur Smith was a graduate of Moody Bible Institute in 1914, of Wooster College in 1917 and received his D.D. at Evangelical Theological College, Dallas, Texas in 1932. He was ordained to the Presbyterian ministry in 1922 and pastored four churches in Maryland, Virginia and Pennsylvania from 1918 until 1937 when he joined the faculty of Moody Bible Institute. From 1934 to 1972 he edited Peloubet's Select Notes on The International Sunday School Lessons. He also served as an editor of the New Scofield Reference Bible. His books include The Time Periods in Prophecy, 1935, How to Study the Bible for the Enrichment of the Spiritual Life, 1936, The Glorious Revival Under King Hezekiah, 1937, Profitable Bible Study, 1939, The Supernaturalness of Christ, 1940, The Gospel of Mark for Men in Service, 1944, Therefore Stand, 1945, a bibliography for the study of D.L. Moody, 1946, This Atomic Age and the Word of God, 1947, A Voice for God: the Life of Charles E. Fuller, 1949, The Approaching World Crisis, 1950, Chats from a Minister's Library, 1951, William H. Houghton: A Watchman on the Wall, 1951, The Word of God and the Life of Holiness, 1952, Egypt in Biblical Prophecy, 1957, A Treasury of Books for Bible Study, 1960, Great Sermons on the Birth of Christ, 1963, Great Sermons on the Death of Christ, 1964, Great Sermons on the Resurrection of Christ, 1965, The Biblical Doctrine of Heaven, 1967, The Israeli/Arab Conflict and the Bible, 1967, The Best of D.L. Moody, 1971, and his autobiography, Before I Forget, 1971.

In 1947 Wilbur Smith left Moody Bible Institute in order to become one of the founding professors of Fuller Theological Seminary where he taught Bible until his resignation in 1963. He then taught one semester each year at Trinity Evangelical Divinity School (1963-1971), while retaining his home in San Marino, California, his office/library on Fuller's campus, and his membership at Lake Avenue Congregational Church in Pasadena where he taught an adult Sunday School class of 200, Koinonia. He also taught Bible classes at the Church of the Open Door in Los Angeles, prepared eight minute meditations for their nightly radio program and accepted speaking engagements for Keswick holiness and prophecy conferences.

In 1947 he left Moody in order to become one of the founding professors of Fuller Theological Seminary where he taught Bible until his resignation in 1963 over issues of pedagogy and biblical hermeneutics. He taught at Trinity Evangelical Divinity School until his retirement. After his retirement he returned to Pasadena where an office was provided in the Fuller Theological Seminary Library, from which he was involved in Seminary life.

Scope and Content

This collection documents the ministries, family life and literary career of Wilbur Moorehead Smith. The centerpiece of the collection is his extensive correspondence with family, colleagues and publishers, dating from 1915 through 1972. Many of the documents in the Biographical, Pastorates, Independent Board and Moody files were used by Dr. Smith in writing his autobiography, Before I Forget. Also included are documents related to his literary, speaking and teaching career, including a collection of his published bibliographies, articles and pamphlets, notes and manuscripts for his speaking engagements, Bible study guides for both church groups and students and the topical files which supported this lifelong work as a well-read and popular Bible scholar and teacher.

The collection includes correspondence dating from 1915 through 1972, course materials, work on the Scofield Bible revisions, research notes, lecture notes for courses, published and unpublished writings, diaries, scrapbooks, Fuller Theological Seminary publications, material documenting his pastoral career, Moody Bible Institute Yearbooks, and ephemera.

Arrangement

The collection is organized into 73 boxes consisting of 9 series as follows:

Series 1: Biographical (Boxes 1-4)

Series 2: Correspondence (Boxes 5-22)

Series 3: Writings & Teachings (Boxes 23-38, 64-67)

Series 4: Pastorates - Ocean City, Lafayette Sq., Covington, Coatesville (Boxes 39-41)

Series 5: Independent Board and Presbyterian Church USA (Boxes 42-43)

Series 6: Moody Bible Institute (Box 44)

Series 7: Fuller Theological Seminary (Box 45)

Series 8: Collected papers – topical files - articles, manuscripts, clippings, booklets, periodicals (Boxes 46-61)

Series 9: Addendum – files from Loizeaux Brothers (Boxes 62-63)

Series 10: Papers added October 2012 (Boxes 68-73)

Series 1: Biographical – Boxes 1 - 4.

This series includes photographs, address books, and documents related to Wilbur Smith's personal life and vocational activities. It also includes materials gathered by Wilbur Smith for the writing of his autobiography as well as drafts and manuscripts of that work.

Series 2: Correspondence – Boxes 5 - 22

This includes all correspondence, organized in three sub-series: family, alphabetical, and topical. The family correspondence includes the exchange between Wilbur Smith and his father Thomas Smith, consisting of nearly a thousand letters, an equally large file of letters exchanged between Wilbur Smith and his wife Mary Jane, as well as letters commenting on Wilbur Smith's teaching and writing, and other miscellaneous personal correspondence. The topical file includes correspondence regarding the authority of Scripture and the so-called 'black Saturday' meeting, correspondence regarding a proposed theological journal and Middle East travel related correspondence. The remainder of Wilbur Smith's large correspondence is organized alphabetically, by correspondent's last name, including correspondence with individuals, publishers and educational institutions.

Series 3: Writings & Teachings – Boxes 23 – 38, 64-67

This series includes Wilbur Smith's notes and papers as a student at Moody Bible Institute, his courses as a professor there, manuscripts of his radio broadcasts, course syllabi prepared for Fuller Theological Seminary, some student papers, and his published writings, articles, tracts, and booklets. His Scofield revisions are included here along with committee notes, as well as a large file of notices and brochures for his speaking engagements from 1911 – 1974. His writing ledgers and bibliographical filing box are also included, boxes 64-67.

Series 4: Pastorates – Boxes 39 - 41

This series documents Wilbur Smith's years as a pastor of four congregations: Ocean City 1918-1921, Huntington Ridge (Lafayette Square) 1922-1927, Covington 1927-1930, and Coatesville 1930-1937.

Series 5: Independent Board – Box 42-43

This includes documents, clippings and correspondence related to the establishment of the Independent Board of Missions in the Presbyterian Church of America, as well as its personal consequences in Wilbur Smith's life. It also includes documents related to the PCUSA, collected by Wilbur Smith.

Series 6: Moody Bible Institute – Box 44

This includes Moody yearbooks, pamphlets, promotional materials, schedules, courses, manuscripts and documents related to Moody Bible Institute Founders Weeks, 1933-1950.

Series 7: Fuller Theological Seminary – Box 45

This is a small file of manuscripts, memos, clippings and other documents related to Fuller Theological Seminary. Fuller Theological Seminary correspondence can be found in Series 2: Correspondence.

Series 8: Collected Materials – Boxes 46-61 and Archives Oversize file cabinet drawer #9

This series includes manuscripts, clippings, books, periodicals and other materials collected by Wilbur Smith throughout his lifetime, related for the most part to his teaching, writing, speaking and work as a bibliographer. The files are arranged topically and include a large collection of tracts and pamphlets. Topics include Bible, archaeology, American Christianity, Education, Israel, bibliographies, the Mediterranean, Billy Graham, religious movements, Great Britain, Communism, the Atomic bomb, Pentecostalism, anti-Catholic literature, Science, Evolution and more.

Series 9 Addendum: Files from the Loizeaux Brothers – Boxes 62, 63

These files were mailed by M.D. Loizeaux to "The Librarian, Wilbur Smith Library" in 1984, neatly packed in Styrofoam. They are labeled in Wilbur Smith's hand and include his writings, engagements, pastorates, photos and bibliographies. The correspondence found in these files has been integrated into the Correspondence series.

Series 10: Papers added October 2012 – Boxes 68-73

These include correspondence in all previously established categories, miscellaneous collected articles, news clippings, manuscripts and student papers, covering dates from 1937 to 1967.
