

UC IRVINE LIBRARY
DEPARTMENT OF SPECIAL COLLECTIONS

COLLECTION OF MEDICAL INSTRUMENTS

MS-M009

Contents: Miscellaneous antique medical instruments, many unidentified as to their purpose.

Extent: 2.8 linear feet (3 boxes)

Provenance: Transferred to Special Collections from the UCI Biomedical Library (Steve Clancy), June 6, 1994.

Materials separated: Miscellaneous articles, pamphlets, letters, etc. regarding the Courville Collection that were received with the Medical Instruments Collection were transferred to a document box and shelved with Courville.

Box

1-3 Blood pressure cuff and gauge kit in metal box.

Drug vials in wooden box with key (one vial missing).

Unidentified surgical instruments in wooden box. One saw with black handle, one small silver saw, three knives, one wire cutter-like nipper.

Unidentified surgical instruments in wooden box; several missing. Box labeled "U.S.A. Hosp. Dep. "

Unidentified surgical instruments, circa "Cival [sic] War", in wooden box with black cardboard cover. Some missing. Contains letter with some historical information.

Unidentified surgical instruments received in a wooden display case [case discarded].

Miscellaneous surgical instruments received in a large wooden box [box discarded] labeled "J.W. Wenkle".