Content Description

Personal materials from James Mita's time serving in the 442nd RCT in Company F. There are also materials from his post-war life serving on the Go For Broke National Education Center board. There is a panoramic of James' training group, Company B 208th Infantry Training Battalion, 64th Training Regiment, at Camp Blanding in Florida. There is also a training manual, IRTC I am a Doughboy with autographs at the end with James' fellow trainees. The bulk of the collection is post-World War II material as James was active in the veteran reunion community as well as the early days of Go For Broke National Education Center.
