Processing Information:

Finding Aid created by Isaac Fellman in 2020, based on an extensive preliminary inventory created by Marjorie Bryer in 2011. Funding for processing this collection was provided by the National Historical Publications and Records Commission (NHPRC).

This inventory uses terminology for LGBTQ people that was in current use at the time of its creation. Descriptive language for queer identities evolves quickly and some of these terms may now be dated or even offensive. Finding aids are themselves historical documents; they reflect the moment in which they were written and often reflect the terms that subjects used for themselves. Please contact the GLBT Historical Society Archivist with questions or comments.

Biographical/Organizational History Note: Donna Hitchens was the United States' first openly lesbian elected judge and the founder of the National Center for Lesbian Rights (NCLR). Hitchens graduated from the University of California, Berkeley's Boalt Hall School of Law in 1977, and founded the organization that became the NCLR immediately afterward. Initially focused solely on issues of concern to lesbians – including custody, adoption, and employment – it now represents gay, bisexual, and transgender clients as well. In 1990, Hitchens was elected to the San Francisco Superior Court, and in 2002 she became its Presiding Judge. She retired from the bench in 2010.

Scope and Content: This collection contains materials related to Hitchens' professional career prior to her election as San Francisco Superior Court judge in 1990. These include law course materials, subject files, reports, conference and board materials, newsletters, publications, a small amount of correspondence, and audiotapes related to LGBT civil rights issues. Prominent topics include AIDS and lesbian parenting; organizations represented include Lambda Legal Defense Fund, National Center for Lesbian Rights (formerly the Lesbian Rights Project), and the National Education Foundation for Individual Rights.
