Processing Information:

Inventory created by Isaac Fellman, based on a preliminary survey completed by previous archivists.

This inventory uses terminology for LGBTQ people that was in current use at the time of its creation. Descriptive language for queer identities evolves quickly and some of these terms may now be dated or even offensive. Finding aids are themselves historical documents; they reflect the moment in which they were written and often reflect the terms that subjects used for themselves. Please contact the GLBT Historical Society Archivist with questions or comments.

Biographical/Organizational History Note: JoAnn Castillo is an oral historian.

Scope and Content: The collection contains taped interviews, mostly with older San Francisco lesbians, but also including a few non-lesbian narrators, such as Harvey Milk. Interviewees include Roberta Bobba, Pic Hill, Win Cottrell, and Sarah Davis. This collection has been merged into the general oral history collection, and is shelved with it.
