Biography

Born in Antigo, Wisconsin in 1919, Edward John Carnell was the son of a Baptist minister. He majored in philosophy under Dr. Gordon Haddon Clark at Wheaton College receiving his B.A in 1941. He also received the degrees of Bachelor of Theology and Th.M. from Westminster Theological Seminary, in 1944, and was ordained that year into the Baptist ministry. He served as a pastor while studying at Harvard Divinity School where he received the degree of Doctor of Theology in 1948. He completed his graduate work at Boston University where he earned his Ph.D, having written his dissertation on "The Problem of Verification in Soren Kierkegaard."

After serving for three years on the faculty of Gordon College and Divinity School, Dr. Carnell began teaching apologetics and philosophy at Fuller Theological Seminary in 1948, until his death in 1967. During these years he taught adult Sunday School classes and often preached at Lake Avenue Congregational Church where he was a member. From 1954 to 1959 he was President of the Seminary.

A well-known theological author, his books include An Introduction to Christian Apologetics (1948); a prize-winning volume used as a textbook in apologetics, The Theology of Reinhold Niebuhr (1950); A Philosophy of the Christian Religion (1952); Christian Commitment (1957); The Case for Orthodox Theology (1959); The Kingdom of Love and the Pride of Life (1960); and The Burden of Soren Kierkegaard (1965).

Scope and Content

The Edward John Carnell: Presidential Papers, 1954-2008 contain Seminary-related correspondence, addresses and administrative papers of the second President (1954-1959) of Fuller Theological Seminary, Edward John Carnell.

Other records include promotional letters and reports, copies of his letters of recommendation, his inaugural address and order of service, a CD of audio recordings of some of his addresses, photos on CD, clippings and brochures concerning the seminary, his memorial leaflets and tributes, files on the re-issue of his books, an Anthology of his works and the Memorial Portrait of Carnell, as well as recordings of the Carnell Memorial chapel held at Fuller in 2008.
