Biographical Note:

Louis Shoall Miller, AIA (1908-1996) was born in New York and died in Orange County, California at the age of 88. He maintained his practicing architectural firm in Long Beach, California and was a member of American Institute of Architects (AIA) beginning in 1946. Miller designed residential and commercial properties primarily in the Long Beach area. His most notable projects include the Long Beach Public Library, Ruth Bach Branch (1958) and Frank Brothers store (1947).

Scope and Content Note:

The materials were donated by Anita Miller and Dr. Martin Fields in 2004 (R2004.1 now S2004.1). The collection contains one series – Photographs of Architecture Projects and brochures documenting Miller's work. Some photograph images were done by Eldon Fitzgerald, Maynard Parker, Marvin Rand, Julius Shulman, John E. Winter, and Floyd Ray.

Series I: Photographs of Architecture Projects and Brochures (73 items). This collection has been digitized.
