Administrative Information

Provenance: Gift of Deke Sonnichsen.

Information about Access: The materials are open for research use.

Ownership & Copyright: All requests to reproduce, publish, quote from, or otherwise use collection materials must be submitted in writing to the ABM Librarian, American Bookbinders Museum, San Francisco, California 94103. Consent is given on behalf of the American Bookbinders Museum as the owner of the physical items and is not intended to include or imply permission from the copyright owner. Such permission must be obtained from the copyright owner, heir(s) or assigns.

Restrictions also apply to digital representations of the original materials. Use of digital files is restricted to research and educational purposes.

Preferred Citation: [Folder name], Joanne Sonnichsen Collection. American Bookbinders Museum Library and Archives.

Biographical/Historical Note: Born in 1933, Joanne Sonnichsen died in 2003 of congestive heart failure. She graduated from Stanford University with a degree in Art and Design in 1958 and eventually began studying the French styles of bookbinding in the 1970s, founding her own studio in Menlo Park. One the creations of which she was most proud is the AIDS Name Project

"Book of Remembrance," which is on permanent display at Grace Cathedral in San Francisco. Sonnichsen served as President of the Book Club of California, the Hand Bookbinders of California, and the Colophon Club of San Francisco, as well as serving as an active member of the Roxburghe Club of San Francisco, the Bancroft Library Associates, the Stanford Library Associates, and the Guild of Book Workers. In the 1990s, she helped found AIR neuf, an international bookbinding organization in France, and in February of 2003, the Book Club of California honored her with the Oscar Lewis Award for "outstanding contributions in the field of Book Arts."

Scope & Contents: The collection includes a variety of materials. There are three manuscript boxes of articles, photographs, correspondence, ephemera, and information on local rare book collections. Three unboxed pieces include manuscripts and drafts of projects done in conjunction with Sun Evrard and others. One is a translation of La Reliure by Sun Evrard and Annie Persuy, one is a folder entitled La Livre de Jason, and one is a box of containing Papiers et Moulins and Des Origins a Nos Jours.
