Processed by:

Finding Aid created by Marjorie Bryer, April 2014, with updates from Isaac Fellman in October 2019. Funding for processing this collection was provided by the Council on Library and Information Resources (CLIR).

This finding aid uses terminology for LGBTQ people that was in current use at the time of its creation. Descriptive language for queer identities evolves quickly and some of these terms may now be dated or even offensive. Finding aids are themselves historical documents; they reflect the moment in which they were written and often reflect the terms that subjects used for themselves. Please contact the GLBT Historical Society Archivist with questions or comments.

Creator:

Logandice, Francine

Biographical Information

Francine Logandice was an entrepreneur who owned a resort on the Russian River and a number of successful bars in San Francisco – the 222 Club on Hyde, the Black Rose, The Depot in the Outer Mission, Francine's, Elaine's, Déjà Vu and Café San Marcos. Logandice was born in New Jersey in 1928, joined the merchant marine at age 14 during World War II, and relocated to California in the mid-1960s before gender transitioning in 1969. Logandice was a prolific collector of transgender-related materials, compiling them into a document she called the Bibliography of Impersonation, Transvestism and Transexualism. She also wrote about and lectured on the topic of transgender identity.

Scope and Content of Collection

The Francine Logandice collection contains correspondence, books, book lists, notes, and research related to her passion project, the Bibliography of Impersonation, Transvestism and Transexualism. Historian and sexologist Vern Bullough called Logandice's work "a labor of love and devotion" and recommended it as a scholarly resource. The majority of the collection is comprised of books listed in Logandice's bibliography; publications and periodicals related to transgender and S&M communities; subject files; ephemera; scrapbooks; news clippings; and photographs. Logandice has identified many of the people in the photos. The collection also contains a small amount of financial records related to the businesses Logandice owned.

Many periodicals in Logandice's collection are also in the GLBT Historical Society's Periodical Collection, including Drag: A Magazine about the Transvestite; Female Mimics; Female Mimics International; GenderFlex; Gender Review (Foundation for the Advancement of Canadian Transsexuals); He-She; Our Sorority; Phoenix Monthly/International; Skin Two; and TV Clipsheet. Additional issues of publications marked with an asterisk (*) in the container listing can also be found in the Periodical Collection.
